PASSION

Baghera/wines

AN EXPERTS OFFICE

Baghera/wines was established at the end of 2015 in Geneva by two passionate experts, who launched a specialized consultancy office exclusively dedicated to exceptional wines. Michael Ganne and Julie Carpentier joined forces, offering a new approach to high-end wine auctions, by placing cordiality and sharing at the very heart of the wine business.

Since then, Baghera/wines have become the European leading fine wine auctioneer, offering amongst other rarities, the “Private cellar of Domaine Henri Jayer” in June 2018, the world’s most important wine auction ever.

Alongside their auctions, the Baghera/wines team guides collectors in every dimension of highlighting a collection, focusing on tailor-made, one-to-one professional advice, outstanding wine sourcing and excellency.

In 2019 Baghera/wines opened their office in Hong-Kong. In the Summer of 2020, Baghera/wines settled at the Hotel Beau-Rivage in Geneva, opening alongside its new office, a Fine Wines exclusive Boutique and a private Club.

TEAM

Michael Ganne

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Michael Ganne is originally from the Médoc region near Bordeaux and naturally chose to dedicate himself to the wine business. Yet his unswerving taste for novelty spanned well beyond the great Bordeaux wines of his native land.

A graduate of the International Vine and Wine Office with a Master of Wine Management, Michael has visited more than twenty-four countries and met with the most influential people in the business.

A strong promoter of the great vintage bottles he unearths, Michael auctioned some of the most glamorous sales as Head of Continental Europe for the Wine Department at Christie's. Yet, relentlessly looking for new perspectives, Michael decides to found his own auction house, Baghera/wines, in 2015.

Since Baghera/wines' creation, we owe Michael the most impressive world records, including the biggest wine auction ever: “Henri Mayer, The Heritage” which he auctioned in June 2018, selling for CHF 34,5M.

Julie Carpentier

DEPUTY DIRECTOR

Julie Carpentier's past is deeply rooted to the Loire valley. These regional origins may very well have given her the desire to take the plunge and work in wineries and vineyards. Yet it may simply have been the encounter with her husband-to-be, an accomplished winemaker...

In a former life, Julie studied Art and Archaeology at the École du Louvre before joining Christie's Wine Department as Wine Specialist, where she dedicated her expertise to fine wines. Also a graduate from WSET, Julie has shown a remarkable understanding of native varietals together with an overall taste for exceptional and unique crus.

Thus, when Michael asked her to join him in the creation of Baghera/wines, she did not hesitate to be part of the venture as Deputy Director, heading the team. Having developped strong ties with Domains, especially in Burgundy, Julie enjoys meeting vintners and people of the vine, pursuing her defense for the recognition and promotion of the art of winemaking.

Francesco Lee

DIRECTOR ASIA

An early passionate, following his “soul of wine”, Francesco is a true enthusiast. Having travelled far and wide and tasted many legendary wines, he has shared his in-depth knowledge with connoisseurs worldwide and collectors for many years.

Originally working as an equities research analyst in a French investment bank, Francesco changed his career to the wine industry, joining Christie's as Senior Wine Specialist and Associate VP in 2008, where he co-organized, amongst others, the Château Latour ex-cellar sale in 2011 in Hong-Kong.

Catching up on their mutual passion for fine wines, Michael and Francesco joined forces to develop and strengthen Baghera/wines' presence throughout Asia. A fervent amateur of European culture and of exceptional French wines especially, Francesco loves bringing people and continents together over the finest crus.

TEAM

Pablo Alvarez

WINE SPECIALIST

Pablo, originally from Spain, has always been in close contact with the fine wine world as his family runs one of the most prestigious wineries in Spain.

An Agricultural Engineer graduated from the Madrid University, Pablo chose to follow his passion for the wine industry and specialise in crop science with emphasis on viticulture and œnology.

With his technical and analytical mindset combined with his passion for fine wines, Pablo joined Baghera/wines in 2019 as Wine Specialist within the team.

At his early career stages, Pablo gained financial knowledge by working several years in Private Equity. But his always increasing curiosity led Pablo to continue learning about the wine business by studying at the WSET. Combined with his other passion fine dining, he has been travelling around the world visiting some of the most prestigious wineries and restaurants.

Arthur Leclerc

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Arthur Leclerc, born in Geneva, comes from a family of restaurateurs who passed on the taste for cooking and sharing gourmet cuisine. An insatiable epicurean, Arthur is fascinated with all things food and trained in the kitchens of a gastronomic restaurant.

Arthur then went on to study at the prestigious École Hôtelière de Genève where he was particularly captivated by event management and œnology. He complemented his hospitality training with two in-house professional experiences at the Ritz Hotel in Paris and at the Salon International de la Haute Horlogerie in Geneva.

Whilst pursuing his passion for the study of wines and spirits, Arthur met Michael and Julie during the inaugural Baghera/wines auction. He joined the team as Sales & Events Officer during the organization of the “Henri Mayer, The Heritage” auction in 2018.

TEAM

Kishan Siriwardena

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Born in Geneva to a Sri Lankan wine enthusiast father and a Finnish mother passionate about numbers, Kishan is the perfect image of these two contrasting personalities. He discovered and flourished in the world of gastronomy and wine at the Hotel Management School in Geneva.

He then continued his studies, specialising in financial management at the Haute Ecole de Gestion in Geneva. Before joining the Baghera team, Kishan held various positions in the hotel world, notably in cost control in a Geneva palace. He was also in charge of the development of a financial plan for the opening of a boutique hotel in Sri Lanka.

It was at this point in his career that he met Michael and Arthur, who is also a former student of the Hotel School, and the whole Baghera/wines team, and was offered the chance to combine his two passions, for wine and numbers, in the role of CFO of Baghera.

TEAM

Olivia Bouët-Willaumez

ART DIRECTOR

An artist’s daughter and grand-daughter, of British and French origins, Olivia has always been sensitive to the intricate geography of signs. Brought up in a multicultural artistic environment on 2 languages, classical music, jazz, PG tips tea, ponies, cats&dogs and books, she fell in love with Hitchcock’s œuvre at an early age and decided to study Dramatic Art in the United Kingdom. She later pursued her acting training in Paris and Moscow and worked as an actress for the theater and cinema for fifteen years.

Family heredity compellingly made its way back, as the atavic urge for drawing and all things graphic sprung up again. Whether sketching portraits on paper tablecloths in restaurants or in her countless notebooks at the terraces of literary cafes in Paris, the fascination for signs on paper led Olivia to join some of the largest publishing houses in Paris and French press groups.

Michael invited her to join Baghera/wines as Art Director in 2015 and she has since signed Baghera’s graphic identity and catalogues.

What we do ...

With a turnover of over CHF 90 million since its creation at the end of 2015, Baghera/wines has become the European leader in the auction of exceptional wines, ahead of a number of historical houses.

In addition to the organisation of auctions and tastings, Baghera/wines continues to develop and diversify in the promotion of exceptional wines.

“Auctions”

Baghera/wines organises two types of auction: room auctions and “Wine o’clocks”.

Three times a year, a room auction is presented, each a unique event telling the story of a heritage – be it that of an illustrious domain, a rare collection or a legendary vintner. A catalogue is published for the occasion, a true treasure chest, inspired and prestigious to perfectly compliment and enhance the bottles offered for sale.

“Wine o’clocks” are regular and fast online auctions that take place every second Tuesday of the month. They run on the principle of dial sales in which the price of lots drops in a limited time. This is an opportunity for Internet users all over the world to acquire great wines, in seconds, at the right price and with a single click.

For all its auctions, Baghera/wines offers a highly qualitative selection of fine wines, elegantly presented in thematic collections and available in e-catalogues, and on a secure, easy-to-use auction platform.

“Events”

Baghera/wines designs and organises several prestigious events throughout the year to celebrate the greatest wines. These events are usually held in Geneva or sometimes further afield, in Burgundy or elsewhere...

“Wine & Music” evenings, thematic tastings in small groups to broaden one’s knowledge of a domain, a vintage, an appellation (vertical, horizontal,...), Baghera/wines style Paulées (traditional Burgundy meals) and delightful dinners presented in collaboration with Michelin-starred restaurants such as Maison Troisgros, are just some of the festive occasions that we have the pleasure to offer you.

For these unique occasions, we put all our experience at your service in selecting with care great wines of old, rare and sought-after vintages. Every moment is crafted to make your experience special, your evening warm and friendly.

“Club”

In the heart of Geneva’s most beautiful neighbourhood, a new club has been established on the ground floor of the historic Beau-Rivage Hotel. A private, high-class setting with a mellow and timeless atmosphere harbouring the greatest wines in the world. Reserved for a limited number of members, this club-lounge is dedicated to culinary and œnological pleasures in a warm and exclusive environment that combines discretion, rarity and privilege.

The Club is an opportunity for lovers of fine wines to meet and to share their impressions, perhaps to exchange bottles and to savour wine in a relaxed atmosphere, a home from home.

Tailor-made themed events are organized throughout the year for members who will also appreciate the Michelin-starred cuisine of Le Chat Botté restaurant and secure personal storage for their own personal collection.

A haven where one can simply disappear for a few hours, and the ideal environment for receiving customers and business partners alike, throughout the year.

“Boutique”

In the Summer 2020, the brand new Baghera/wines Boutique opened its doors in the heart of the Hotel Beau-Rivage in Geneva. Much more than a “boutique” in the commercial sense of the term, the venue invites wine lovers to discover not only exceptional vintages, but also more accessible and quite remarkable wines, a library made up of ancient oenological books and treaties accessible to members of the Club only.

Located at number 2 rue Adhémar-Fabri, in Geneva and close to the prestigious hotel, Beau-Rivage Genève, with which it maintains close ties, the Boutique offers a unique approach. The client is invited to journey to the heart of the terroirs, to share the most secret stories of the most renowned winegrowers worldwide, will be taken by the hand to live a human and sensory experience and reconnect with the land and its noblest products.

This is how Michael Ganne and Julie Carpentier, the founders of Baghera/wines, first imagined this venue – a sojourn of pleasure that will allow them to keep in close contact with all of their customers throughout the year.
Open 10am to 7pm, Tuesday to Saturday.

“Cellar”

Since the autumn of 2019, Baghera/wines has been working with restaurateurs in Geneva, to sublimate the finest Swiss gastronomic talent.

The Cellar project offers to promising young chefs a fine wine list chosen with care by the experts at Baghera/wines, which complements the restaurant’s original wine menu, while remaining consistent with the establishment’s cuisine.

A genuine wine cellar on consignment, available to our partner restaurants in Geneva, Cellar offers wine enthusiasts the opportunity to taste rare vintages, sought-after appellations and bottles which are impossible to find on the market, and all this at selling prices in line with the market.

FOREWORD

“Eternity is forever”

BY MICHAEL GANNE

“I feel sorry for people who don’t drink. When they wake up in the morning, that’s as good as they’re going to feel all day.”

Frank Sinatra (1915–1998)

“Let me take you down, ‘cause I am going to Burgundy fields forever... the sound of an image, travelling through perceptions and smells that you can touch with your eyes... “and nothing to get hung up about”!

This catalogue naturally cannot encompass all the viticultural pleasures of Burgundy’s climats, but it is a journey that we suggest, the path of a dreamer through these ancestral plots... The three sections composing this catalogue are an ode to the Burgundy we love, to the respect we have for the winegrowers who work tirelessly so that this alchemy of the land and the vine can enchant our taste buds.

The first part of this catalogue from a Swiss cellar will introduce you to the pleasures of some famous Domaines with great verticals that will give you a better understanding of each climat according to its vintages. One easily recognizes the touch of a Burgundy enthusiast who wishes to share his love of the Côte de Nuits regions exploring the history of each of these parcels. This perfectly preserved cellar is a wonderful demonstration of his passion.

The second part offers an introduction to the pleasures of the great mature Burgundy vintages, some of which can no longer be found nowadays. These jewels from the private cellar of a great Burgundy domaine, comfortably installed in an old natural cellar in a somewhat damp, cool basement hadn’t left their terroir in decades. What a pleasure to chat to the owner of these veritable nectars, preserved by his ancestors, and tasted among family members. These are the stories that only wine growers can tell us... so far from and yet so close to present-day reality.

The final chapter brings this catalogue to a close in a blend of simplicity and grandeur, with Henri Mayer’s legendary wines from his daughter Lydie’s private cellar. Henri Mayer himself chose and offered each of these bottles as gifts, or simply and quite humbly brought them to Lydie’s home, 20 minutes from Vosne-Romanée, for Sunday lunches with the family. As a fun nod to those well acquainted with Henri Mayer’s labels, although they came from Henri’s daughter’s private cellar, all of these bottles have benefited from new labels and capsules used in 2018 at our historic auction.

The highlight of the sale will surely be this Richebourg 1959, a wine that Henri Mayer hoped to open for the christening of his grandson Sébastien in 1971. He changed his mind because, to his taste, the wine wasn’t ready. The same thing happened at Sébastien’s wedding. Deemed too young, the wine would be kept for a subsequent occasion and in the end, a bottle was drunk at a Christmas family celebration. The ultimate bottle of Richebourg 1959 was kept in a corner... and you are fortunate enough to see it appear here, as the very last lot in this catalogue. Might it still be too young?!

It will in any case constitute a timeless memory for a legendary bottle that you will be able to taste while thanking Henri for having been so patient... and all while admiring these “Burgundy fields”... forever!

Warmest regards, Michael Ganne

Burgundy fields... together!

A VERY SPECIAL LUNCH

Two chefs, four hands, three stars.

The presentation of this gourmet moment could end right there.

Gathered under the same roof, iconic Geneva chefs Philippe Chevrier and Dominique Gauthier have created a three-star menu around Greater Burgundy's two main grape varieties: Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, and around Burgundy wines to be auctioned on June 20th 2021 at the Beau-Rivage Geneva.

On this spring Saturday, the Châteauvieux Restaurant, rated 19 out of 20 by Gault & Millau, will welcome you to a six-course menu highlighting great Burgundy wines that will be served according to food and wine pairings.

The nature of the wines will not be disclosed. No list will be produced and all bottles will be hidden to enable a blind tasting, allowing you to focus on the qualities of their wines while detecting all their mysteries. The selection by the Baghera/wines team will once again be composed of the greatest bottles from this fabulous French region, especially for you, dear epicureans.

inspection criteria

DESCRIPTION

Baghera/wines indicates conditions of the lots according to four criteria: capsules, corks, labels and levels. Even with the best of care, labels may be stained or damaged because wines are stored in damp conditions. Such storage conditions are beneficial to the preservation of the wines. It is our duty to catalogue and report on wines as accurately as possible at the time of going to press. High resolution photographs are available upon request. The actual condition of the wine within the bottle is not necessarily linked to its outward appearance. You are strongly advised to examine any lot you are interested in before the sale to form your own opinion (or have it examined on your behalf).

CORKS AND ULLAGES IN REGARDS TO WINE

Ullage refers to the space between the base of the capsule and the wine itself. Acceptable ullage levels tend to increase with age.

In this catalogue, when stated "perfect condition", please read that the levels are:

- under 25 years old — less than 2,5cms
- between 26 and 50 years old — 3cms to 4cms
- over 51 years old — 4cms to 5cms

It should be noted that ullages may change between publication of the catalogue and the sale. This may be caused by the ageing of the cork or by a change in the temperature of the storage conditions or the shipment of the wine. We will only accept responsibility for descriptions of conditions at the time of print of this catalogue and cannot accept responsibility for any loss resulting from failure of corks either before or after this point.

PARCELS

Same wines (producers, appellation, vintage, etc.) may be regarded as part of a parcel. The successful bidder on a lot in a parcel has the possibility to purchase each of the remaining unsold lots in this parcel at the same price, at the time of the bidding. Please note that, in this catalogue, a parcel notice is indicated by the numbers of its constitutive lots in the heading.

CAUTIONARY NOTES

- Descriptions and estimates in this catalogue may be amended at our own discretion. Information is given orally or in writing, before or during the sale.
- Note that some producers tend to over-fill their bottles and a small quantity of wine may be trapped between the capsule and the cork and seep. This should not be confused with ullage (ullage is a natural occurrence in older wines).

- Bottle: 75 cl.
- Magnum: 150 cl.
- Jeroboam: 300 cl.

conditions of sale

These conditions of sale govern the contractual relations between Baghera/wines Auction & Trading SA (“Baghera/wines”), the seller whose details are indicated in the Sales Commission document (“Seller”), any participant in the auction or traded or over-the-counter, as well as any bidder and the highest bidder, excluding contractual relations between Baghera/wines and the Seller. In case of conflict between these conditions of purchase and the terms and conditions of sale, the general terms and conditions of sale shall prevail. These purchase conditions can be modified at any time, in writing or orally during the sale. By participating in any capacity whatsoever in an auction or a private sale organized at Baghera/wines’ discretion, you agree to be bound by these conditions. You should therefore read them carefully before doing so.

1. BUYER

The last bidder at the stroke of the gavel (the “Buyer”) wins the bid on the lot of items (the “lot”). In case of dispute between two or more bidders, the lot will immediately be relisted.

2. AUCTION PROCEDURE

The bailiff accepts bids from those present at the sale, phone bidders, online bidders as well as absentee bidders. The stroke of the gavel indicates the final bid awarding the lot to the Purchaser. The bailiff speaks out and records the name or number of the Buyer.

3. TRANSFER OF RISK AND PROPERTY

Once awarded to the Buyer, the risks and ownership of the lot(s) pass to the Buyer.

4. ABSENTEE BIDDING

Baghera/wines can place bids on customers’ instruction, if you are unable to attend the auction in person, Baghera/wines and its employees or agents cannot be held responsible for failure in the transmission of these instructions during the auction. In the case where two identical bidding instructions match the highest bidding, the lot will be awarded to the first bidder. Baghera/wines reserves the right in its sole discretion, to refuse bids from a buyer’s instructions in case the information and documents submitted as proof of identity, i.e. the identity of the beneficial owner, should prove to be false, incomplete, ambiguous or inadequate.

5. TERMS OF AUCTION

The bailiff has the right at its absolute discretion to refuse any bid, to advance the bidding as it may decide, to withdraw or divide any Lot, to combine any two or more Lots. Any bid must be at least 10% higher than the previous bid. The bailiff can, however, change this percentage during the auction. The Seller as well as any person instructed by the former cannot bid on their own lots.

6. ESTIMATE

The estimate of each lot is based on prices reached during previous auctions for similar lots. It is subject to change and does not constitute any guarantee or indication of the actual final sale price. The estimate does not include costs such as the Buyer’s premium and additional costs (refer to section 8. below).

7. RESERVE PRICE

The reserve price is the confidential minimum price at which the Seller agrees to sell the Lot. If the reserve price is not reached, Baghera/wines may reject the last bid and set a new starting price equal to or above the reserve price. In case no bid matches or is above the reserve price, Baghera/wines shall withdraw the lot without adjudging it to anyone. Baghera/wines, however, reserves the right to organise a private sell after the auction, in which case the price shall not be lower than the reserve price, subject to agreement by the Seller for a price below the reserve price.

8. BUYER’S PREMIUM AND ADDITIONAL COSTS

The buyer’s premium is 22% plus 7,7% Value added tax (VAT) on the hammer price and buyer’s premium. The total amount of the hammer price of each of lot purchased, plus the buyer’s premium, plus VAT is the final price to acquire the lot(s). Please note that other taxes may arise after collection of the goods. This tax (VAT) is refunded to any buyer domiciled outside Switzerland if, but only if, Baghera/wines receives from such buyer an export declaration in respect of a purchased lot which has been stamped by Swiss customs.All buyers should note that local sales taxes or use taxes may become payable upon import of items following purchase. Buyers should obtain their own advice in this regard.

9. EXCHANGE RATES

In some auctions, in order to ensure proper information for the Buyer, a currency converter is made available. The data displayed are provided for information only and Baghera/wines assumes no responsibility in this regard.

10. PRE-AUCTION VIEWING

Prospective buyers are encouraged to inspect the property at the pre-sale viewing, which can be attended at no charge by appointment only (please contact office@bagherawines.com). Bidders accept responsibility for carrying out inspections and investigations, during previewing, to satisfy themselves as to the lots in which they may be interested. Baghera/wines may also provide condition reports. The absence of reference to the condition of a lot in the catalogue description does not imply that the lot is free from faults or imperfections.

11. NO WARRANTY

Baghera/wines only acts as agent to the Seller. The sale is passed directly between the Seller and the Buyer. Baghera/wines shall not be responsible for any defects in the lots nor do we guarantee the accuracy of the information concerning the producer, origin, date, age, authenticity, provenance, weight or condition of any Lot. None of Baghera/wines agents have authority to give any guarantees in this respect. All statements made in catalogues, advertisements or brochures concerning Baghera/wines sales only express opinions and are no guarantee from Baghera/wines or the Seller. All persons concerned are expected to inquire before the auction, about the description and condition and of the lots and of possible defects or possible damage or repairs which have been, or need to be, carried out.

12. BIDDERS REGISTRATION

Prospective buyers who would bid for the first time with Baghera/wines are asked to provide the following documents, at least 48 hours in advance, in order to give Baghera/wines enough time to process and approve the registration for the auction:

- Individuals: government-issued photo identification (such as a driving licence, national identity card, or passport) and, if not shown on the ID document, proof of current address, for example a utility bill/bank statement.
- Corporate clients: a recent copy (under 3 months old) of the company register.
- For other business structures such as trusts, offshore companies or partnerships, please contact Baghera/wines’ Accounting Department (sales@bagherawines.com) for advice on the information you should supply.
- A financial reference in the form of a recent bank statement or a reference from your bank.
- Persons registering to bid on behalf of someone who has not previously bid or consigned with Baghera/wines should bring identification documents not only for themselves but also for the party on whose behalf they are bidding, together with a signed letter of authorisation from that party.

Please note, Baghera/wines is entitled to request a deposit in CHF in order to ensure the bidders’ final registration. If the bidder is unsuccessful and does not owe Baghera/wines any debt, the deposit will be refunded (i.e. the received CHF amount) in full, 7 days after the sale. Baghera/wines is entitled to change the deposit pre-registration procedures and requirements at their own discretion without prior notice.

13. BIDDER RESPONSIBILITY

Bidding at Auction

Bids may be executed in person by paddle during the auction, in writing prior to the sale by telephone or by live bidding.

Bidding in Person

To bid in person, you will need to register for and collect a numbered paddle before the auction begins. Proof of identity will be required. New clients are encouraged to register at least 48 hours in advance of a sale to allow sufficient time for us to process your information. All lots sold will be invoiced to the name and address to which the paddle has been registered and invoices cannot be transferred to other names and addresses. Please do not mislay your paddle; in the event of loss, inform the Sales Clerk immediately. At the end of the sale, please return your paddle to the registration desk.

Bidding by Telephone

If you cannot attend the auction, you may bid live on the telephone with one of our multilingual staff members. This service must be arranged at least 72 hours in advance of the sale, especially if you wish to bid in a language other than English. We also recommend that you leave an emergency bid which we can execute on your behalf just in case we are unable to reach you by telephone. Please note that telephone bids may be recorded (by bidding on the telephone, you consent to the recording of your conversation). We suggest that you leave a maximum bid, excluding the buyer’s premium and VAT, which we can execute on your behalf in the event we are unable to reach you by telephone.

Online Live Bidding — Blive

If you cannot attend the auction in person, you may bid online on our online live bidding platform, available on our website at www.bagherawines.com. You must pre-register at least 36 hours before the start of the auction in order to be approved by our bid department. Please note that corporate firewalls may cause difficulties for online bidders. Baghera/wines’ Blive platform is available on mobile devices as well as computers.

Absentee Bids

If you are unable to attend an auction in person, you may give Baghera/wines instructions to bid on your behalf. Our member of staff will then try to purchase the lot(s) of your choice for the lower price possible. Please note this service is free, totally confidential and offered as a convenience to clients who are unable to attend the sale. In the event of identical bids, the earliest received will take precedence. Although our representative will make every effort, Baghera/wines will not be responsible for error or failure to execute bids.

Bidding Increments

Bidding generally opens with the low estimate and advances in increments of up to 10% subject to the auctioneer’s discretion. The auctioneer retains the right to call bids at his own discretion – bids steps are shown on the Guide for Absentee Bidders on page 342.

Currency and Currency Converter

The sale is conducted in Swiss francs. Any other amounts shown in this catalogue and on the currency converter are for guidance only and are not legally binding. Baghera/wines declines all responsibility for any mistakes on the currency converter.

When bidding, the person assumes personal accountability to pay the price and any other applicable taxes or charges, unless it has been explicitly agreed in writing with Baghera/wines, prior to the auction, that the bidder only acts as an agent on behalf and in the name of an third party, acknowledged and accepted by Baghera/wines, and that the said party shall be solely responsible for payment of the Price.

The fall of the auctioneer’s hammer indicates the final bid. The auctioneer will call out and record the name or “paddle” number of the buyer. If your written bid is successful, you will be notified the day following the sale by email. Please note, bidding may be re-opened at the auctioneer’s discretion. The final bid is provisional until the end of the auction. The auctioneer is entitled to re-open the bidding at his discretion at any time before the end of the auction. At the end of the auction, the final bid becomes irrevocable.

14. SALE RESULTS

Results for the sale are available upon request. Baghera/wines cannot accept liability for any errors or omissions, howsoever caused. Sellers should await their settlement statement as confirmation of any sold proceeds.

15. PAYMENT OPTIONS AND DEADLINES

The price is payable in Swiss francs in the seven days following the sale. On the eighth day after the sale, interest at the rate of 1% per month will be added to the amount due. Payment can also be made in foreign currencies with legal-tender status if that amount conditions of sale (continued)

All fees regarding bank transfers are at the buyer's charge.

Goods can only be collected when payment has been cleared.

16. NON-PAYMENT

In case of non payment by the Buyer within seven days of the sale, Baghera/wines shall try their best to carry out the Seller's instructions as to the next steps and help them, when possible, to reach the price or if not, cancel the sale. All damages are expressly reserved. Notwithstanding the above, Baghera/wines expressly reserves the right at its discretion and expense of the Seller to accept special conditions of payment of the price, to take adequate measures for storage and/or lot insurance, to start or pursue any legal proceedings instituted by or against the Buyer on the terms and conditions that Baghera/wines considers appropriate, to take all necessary measures to recover the amounts owed by Buyer and, if possible, to return the lot to the Seller.

In case of non-payment or partial payment, Baghera/wines is entitled to terminate the contract with immediate effect, provided that it has served a warning to the Buyer to pay the requested amount within 10 days. In case of termination of the contract, the Buyer accepts to pay an indemnity corresponding to 10% of lot to Baghera/wines. The Buyer understands and expressly accepts that any amount already paid by the Buyer will be retained by Baghera/wines up to the amount of the indemnity.

17. PARTIAL PAYMENT

Any partial payment by the Buyer to Baghera/wines will be considered payment through direct deposit. In case of failure of the Buyer to pay the entire price of this deposit will be automatically collected and lot will be relisted by public auction or at a private auction or sale by private treaty at the discretion of Baghera/wines.

18. COLLECTION, SHIPPING, IMPORTATION AND STORAGE

Baghera/wines is authorized to retain the lots until all amounts due to Baghera/wines have been paid in full or until the Buyer has performed all other obligations that Baghera/wines, at his discretion, considers due, including anti money laundering and counter financing of terrorism compliance.

In case a buyer does not meet the aforementioned checks to the satisfaction of Baghera/wines, the company will be entitled to cancel the sale and take any other action required or permitted by law. Shipping service will take place after reception of payment.

20. NON-COLLECTION OR NON-DELIVERY

In case the Buyer, having fulfilled all his obligations under these conditions of purchase, does not withdraw or fails to take delivery of the Lot, Baghera/wines will be entitled to, upon notification to the Buyer, relist the lot by way of auction or private sale, in their sole discretion, and charge the Buyer the entire storage costs, insurance and all other costs that may occur. Baghera/wines has discretion to renounce to any of the above elements. Baghera/wines may require the Buyer to obtain at the Buyer's cost the reports of two recognised and independent experts in the field, reciprocally acceptable to Baghera/wines and the Buyer.

Baghera/wines shall not be bound by any reports produced by the Buyer, and reserves the right to seek additional expert advice at its own expense.

On the assumption that Baghera/wines decides to cancel the sale under this Guarantee, the reasonable costs of two mutually approved independent expert reports may be refunded to the Buyer.

Wine buyers from outside Switzerland should be aware of restrictions imposed by various jurisdictions regarding importation of alcoholic beverages.
