FOREWORD

“Art in every bottle”

BY MICHAEL GANNE

855 bottles and 209 magnums! That’s how many bottles there were in Domaine Henri Mayer’s cellar. A handful of people knew of the treasures that were lying dormant at the Domaine, even though many bottles had been opened and shared these past few years. The anecdote about one last Richebourg 1959 opened by the family last Christmas shows how much Henri Mayer’s descendants enjoy tasting their father and grandfather’s wine. Nevertheless, the decision was made, and the desire to offer these ultimate nectars to wine-lovers one last time was stronger than the temptation to keep them stored away in the cellar.

Henri Mayer’s name has become such a myth that it requires no explanation. These increasingly rare and sought-after bottles continue to bewitch our taste-buds, and the “lucky few” who have had the wonderful opportunity to sample them in recent times can confirm. The last bottles from Henri Mayer’s cellar have become priceless treasures for lovers of the respected vigneron’s wines. This is the last chance to obtain them directly from the Domaine, guaranteed to be perfectly preserved.

Bringing this fabulous cellar to light is indeed dreamlike, and believe it or not, it is actually happening... before our astounded eyes, taking us back to our childhood days when we still could discover treasures. This is what we felt when organising this auction and we invite you to share it together with us. The Baghera/wines team has worked hard to make this auction magical and exceptional. Moreover, you may be assured that we have taken special care of five specific concerns:

Provenance: All the bottles in the auction come from the cellar of Domaine Henri Mayer. These bottles were kept and stored by Henri Mayer, listed in his cellar book and in his annual stock inventory for customs. Now that his estate has been settled, the wines belong to Henri Mayer’s two daughters, whose wish is to sell these last few bottles at auction. The wines remained in the cellar, without ever being moved from the cellar, until Baghera/wines arranged their transport to the Geneva FreePort, last February 2018, under the supervision of a sworn bailiff.

Preservation: The bottles in the auction are exceptionally well preserved as they have never been removed from the Domaine’s cellar. As the Domaine’s ageing cellar is indeed perfect for wine storage, the colour of the wines is resplendent, and the levels are generally sublime for bottles of their age. The bottles from the cellar that we were able to taste show that the wine is still young enough to be kept for an impressive length of time, for those who are patient enough... Choosing Geneva as the auction venue and as the storage location for these exceptional wines meant that they would not suffer from a long transport from Vosne-Romanée.

New Domaine capsules and labels: As is the tradition in Burgundy, Henri Mayer kept his wines “sur pile”, bottled and stacked in his cellar – without labels or capsules. Labels and capsules were therefore placed on all the bottles in the Domaine’s vat-room by Emmanuel Rouget and Henri Mayer’s daughters ahead of the auction, last February 2018, just before the wines were removed from the premises. All the capsules, vintage slips and front labels on the bottles are new and in excellent condition, regardless of the wine’s vintage.

Prooftag™ and original wooden cases: The uniqueness of this collection was an incentive to improve the wine traceability process. Every bottle in this auction benefits from the Prooftag™ protection system, used by many prominent Domaines, enabling each buyer to identify and authenticate each wine that they acquire at this historic auction. The bottles and magnums are offered in original wooden cases marked Domaine Henri Mayer, made exclusively for this auction.

Transport and Geneva FreePort: The wines were transported from Henri Mayer’s Vosne-Romanée cellar to the Geneva FreePort in a specially chartered truck under a bailiff’s supervision. The wines were escorted to Geneva FreePort’s cellars, where they are currently being stored in perfect temperature and hygrometric conditions.

The story of these bottles would never have been this remarkable without Henri Mayer’s lifelong dedication as an artisan winemaker, without his willpower and strength of character in the face of this challenging profession – working tirelessly to bequeath his work to the world. His poetry, his art is in every bottle. His passionate respect for nature and the vine, and his meticulous striving for excellency in the cellar, would not have been fully expressed without his wife Marcelle’s precious contribution. Invariably by his side, in the vineyard as in the cellar, whilst also raising their two daughters, Marcelle created the “Kingdom” with Henri.

We especially wish to thank Lydie and Dominique, Henri Mayer’s daughters, as well as their respective husbands, Jean-Claude and Patrick, for placing their trust in us, for sharing reminiscences and anecdotes with us, for disclosing so many precious files, and for the family moments spent together drinking their father’s wines as well! They kindly gave us access to considerably treasureable documents, a few of which are reproduced in this catalogue. “Thankyou!” for these gems... You will also find, in this catalogue, several “special lots” from the cellar – treasure hunt!

We cannot forget, or fail to thank, the heir to Henri Mayer’s savoir-faire: Emmanuel Rouget, who learned and worked alongside his uncle from 1976 onwards. His passion and knowledge of wine is priceless and he continues to make brilliant wines from the Mayer family’s vines, while in turn passing on the familial know-how to his children.

In agreement with Henri Mayer’s daughters, we make the following promise: the buyers from this auction will be invited to visit the Domaine where the “Master” created... and even, why not, for a tasting of your newly acquired wines in situ? Although Henri Mayer’s vibrant cellar is now at rest, empty, the spirit of the Domaine must live on thanks to you, lovers of the finer things in life, Burgundy enthusiasts, ardent defenders of excellence. Let's not forget how to open and drink these bottles! •

the road to excellence

Henri Mayer by Aubert de Villaine

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANÉE-CONTI, MARCH 2018

One of my fondest memories of Henri Mayer is the time I spent with him tasting our wine from the casks in our Domaine’s cellar. I had already met him before, but it was during this one-to-one tasting that I truly understood and admired the very deep reflection that underpinned his philosophy and inspired him in his life as a winemaker.

A writer once said: “The most important thing about a man is his dreams”. A winemaker’s life is above all about working hard every day in the vineyard. For him more than anyone, it would make no sense to compare his life to a dream, but all the efforts and sacrifices that Henri Mayer’s trade demanded did contribute to fulfilling his dream of making truly great wines.

We spent a long time in conversation, sometimes in heated debate, about the use of the stalk for example. At the end, when we tasted La Romanée Conti from the cask and discussed its distinctive silkiness on the palate, he told me: “One thing I would have liked to do, just once in my life, would have been to vinify La Romanée Conti.”

Henri Mayer’s immense respect for the vine was returned and shared by all those who knew him. He is one of those men who have proudly proclaimed the values of our local vineyard parcels, Les Climats de la Côte Viticole, over the centuries, and have propelled the region forward on the road to excellence, a journey that constantly begins afresh.

Aubert de Villaine

a conversation

Henri Mayer by Emmanuel Rouget

FLAGEY-ÉCHÉZEAUX, 7TH OF MARCH 2018

Julie Carpentier — What was it like working with Henri?

Emmanuel Rouget — He was a very good teacher. As we enjoyed each other's company, our relationship wasn't complicated. Sometimes I struggled to understand his work in the cellar. In the vines, I felt more at ease. His "obsessiveness" in the cellar... I struggled to keep up with him there: why do we do this, why do we do that...??! And today I realise that I do the same thing!!! At times, I think, "Hey, that's like when I was with my uncle!!". I look back and see myself with him...

Did you see your uncle's exceptional side, through his approach to wine-growing and wine, or through his reputation?

I began to understand when he entered competitions and always came back with an array of medals and prizes (especially the Prix d'Excellence in Mâcon), and with the people, famous or otherwise, chefs, sommeliers, and so on, who came to the Domaine.

Based on your conversations, which vintage do you think Henri Mayer was most proud of, over all the vintages that he produced?

1978 and the birth of the Cros-Parantoux was his great source of pride. His creation. That made an impact on him. It was Vosne-Romanée Village before and he was aware that this terroir had immense potential.

Any special memories of your uncle?

It was the early 1990s, while we were having a morning snack during winemaking. We used 2 upturned grape crates as seats, and a third in the middle as a table. My wife had made a chicken terrine. Uncle was in an exploratory mood and he pulled out... a bottle of Richebourg 1959 to go with this snack at 9 o'clock in the morning!!! It was an exceptional moment. The wine was extraordinary. At the time, it was definitely the oldest wine I'd ever tasted. That was my greatest memory of tasting my uncle's wines.

What was your uncle's best quality?

His frankness, his honesty.

The same could be said about you!

It's not for me to say... but I won't contradict you!

Your "taste", your "palate": would you say it was formed through being around your uncle, that it was also passed on to you by Henri Mayer in a way?

Indeed, Henri Mayer taught me it. Then life leads you to experiment... You go tasting here and there... Then after a few of these experiments (which are more or less conclusive), you tell yourself: "that's the way I like it". Stalks, for example: I don't like the stalk, I'll never put it in my wines. It bothers me a lot in the Pinot noir. Running a cellar is all about personal tastes. Producing a wine means expressing your tastes, like a chef who expresses his tastes in his kitchen. The same goes for wine-making.

It's an apprenticeship with Henri Mayer: would you say he helped you to form your palate?

Yes, yes. He was of the same opinion (about the use of stalks)... He was quite categorical about that. I am one of the few people who systematically ruled out the stalk. Many people came to see Henri Mayer, and he told them what he thought about the stalk... They nonetheless all experimented with it at some point, apart from a few exceptions.

Regarding 1978, would you say there was a certain "excitement", particularly high expectations for this vintage, especially as it was the first year when all the wines were bottled at the Domaine?

It was a big change. That year was 100% bottling... he hadn't done it before then, because he didn't have the time to spare. It was just him and my aunt. Bottling takes time because it involves labelling, then marketing... His entries in the Mâcon and Paris wine competitions helped him to market the wine. A Gold Medal, a Silver Medal, a Bronze Medal... then you get drawn in.

In 1978, that year, he wasn't well-known in France. The Americans, who knew him back home, had strong buying power once they came to France. They raised his profile in the world of fine dining. They asked for Henri Mayer's wines in the top restaurants. People often didn't know him at first... then gradually, he made a name for himself in France.

Uncle was in an exploratory mood and he pulled out... a bottle of Richebourg 1959 to go with this snack at 9 o'clock in the morning!!!

What vintages from Henri Mayer's day stand out for you?

For the Cros, without hesitating, I'd say 1989 and 1990.

For the Beaumonts, in my uncle's time, the 1989 vintage is etched in my memory – and also 1991, which was really very great. 1989 was perhaps slightly livelier than 1991. The 1991 vintage was – for the winegrowers who made a success of it – a very great vintage, although it didn't receive much media attention.

For the Brûlées, 1978... or 1980. Yes, 1980 was great too. At the time there was the Brûlées, Richebourg and Cros-Parantoux, three wines (geographically close to each other) which were really very different. Very often, during the ageing phase back then, the wine that was nicest to taste was "Les Brûlées".

There is also 1985. That was a more full-bodied and alcoholic vintage. Tastes change with the years. And you have to bear in mind that back then, we punched down the wines twice a day with my uncle. Today, I only punch down my vats once a day. 1985, 1990 were punched down twice a day with the bowl. We pushed the pomace down into the wine. Today at the Domaine, we punch down using "claws". We break up the cap, the pomace, but in the end only a very small amount of wine comes up over the top. It's more moderate.

One of your last memories of making wine with your uncle?

It was in 2005. He was already ill and hadn't taken part in the grape harvest. He only came for the wine-making in the cellar here in Flagey. He arrived in the courtyard, we were in the vat room. He wanted to taste all the vats. He tasted the vats one after the other... But he remained silent. I was worried. What stupid thing might I have done???? My stomach was really "in knots"! I was feeling flustered. The tasting ended. I went back to the car with him. As he opened his car door, he turned to me and said, "Do you realise the quality of the wine you've made???" How should I interpret his words???? I didn't know if it was good or bad! I looked at him and he must have seen that I didn't understand, that I was lost. He said to me, "What you've done is extraordinary". That was a great relief. It was like a "release". It's true that it was a superb vintage. The quality of the grapes... as if there were blackcurrants above the vats. It was really magnificent. •

Marcelle Mayer, née Rouget, married Henri during World War II, as he was beginning his “career” as a winemaker. Her husband never ceased to highlight the complementarity of their couple, whether it be in their family life or in their joint work at the vineyard, attributing to Marcelle all the merit that she deserved. Her great strength of character and her meticulousness unwaveringly served the tasks in the vineyard, which was particularly close to her heart; the rows were to be cut as well as her house was to be kept. If she sometimes greeted customers with a scowl, they knew however that they could enjoy an excellent meal after the cellar.

Givré le matin. Chilly. J'ai labouré les Cruets, Beaumonts et fini les Cros-Parantoux. Marcelle a fait les tailles et nettoyé aux Beaumonts.

“Frost in the morning. Chilly. I ploughed the Cruets, Beaumonts and finished the Cros-Parantoux.

Les Meurgers has a nice surface... It is a very generous wine. With maybe a little more body than acidity. But always very consistent, nice and substantial. The elegance of the South side...

Vosne-Romanée is not a very broad appellation, with climates that are quite similar to each other. Contrary to popular belief, Vosne-Romanée Village is not a very supple appellation. This is a very powerful wine. It's generous while having a sense of reserve... over time. It needs to be kept and aged. Personally, these are wines that I prefer to keep for a while before drinking. The Vosnes are nonetheless full-bodied wines. Not "bodybuilder" wines, but with spicy notes that need to blend in, to soften with time.

For me this is one of the greatest premiers crus of Vosne-Romanée. I think the premiers crus in the North of Vosne-Romanée are the best. Les Beaumonts is a very subtle wine, balanced, delicate: like beautiful lace. It's the wine that always puts everyone "in a good mood". It's fresh and cheerful at the same time: this is a wine for celebrating! Generous and discreet, everything is there to underline the wine... Drinking it is always a great pleasure.

That's a great appellation too, also on the North side of Vosne-Romanée. It produces wines with a slightly more powerful body than the Beaumonts. Henri Mayer's Brulées came to an end in 1987, when Méo took over the vines.

Cros

lots 88 to 164

This vine is unique!

Its geographical location is already unique in itself.

Grand Cru at the bottom, Premier Cru in the South, Village at the top: this set-up is very rare.

The Cros-Parantoux is located above the Combe Brûlée.

There's the pine wood, the road down from Concoeur: it's very cold there! Depending on where you are in the Cros-Parantoux parcel, the winds and perceptions of cold are quite different.

The Cros soil is ploughed by horse only, which allows us to cultivate the land without causing subsidence, in order to limit erosion.

notes de décembre

Ciel humide dans les 7 premiers mois, l'année 78 s'est terminée par une très forte sécheresse à partir du 15 août ce qui a favorisé la maturation et de ce fait la qualité du millésime. Par contre le mois de juin humide a été néfaste à la quantité (25^{he}).
 Sa pluie n'a fait son apparition que vers la fin décembre et mis fin à une sécheresse sans précédent. Par contre les travaux d'hiver sont très avancés -

An extremely well-located parcel, since it is at the very start of the Échézeaux appellation, at the edge of Uchaux. The Échézeaux appellation is vast as it goes as far as the Combe d'Orveaux (behind the Clos de Vougeot) and covers 36 hectares.

Its qualities vary by area. Échézeaux are very generous wines. The Treux have deeper soils which bring a certain finesse to the wine. The Cruots have a slightly stony terrain and give the wine more body. Finesse, body... perfect harmony.

A wine that's well put together, never heavy, generous and fluid. The Americans would call it "energetic".

DESCRIPTION

Baghera/wines indicates conditions of the lots according to four criteria: capsules, corks, labels and levels.

Even with the best of care, labels may be stained or damaged because wines are stored in damp conditions. Such storage conditions are beneficial to the preservation of the wines. It is our duty to catalogue and report on wines as accurately as possible at the time of going to press. High resolution photographs are available upon request. The actual condition of the wine within the bottle is not necessarily linked to its outward appearance. You are strongly advised to examine any lot you are interested in before the sale to form your own opinion (or have it examined on your behalf).

CORKS AND ULLAGES

Ullage refers to the space between the base of the capsule and the wine itself. Acceptable ullage levels tend to increase with age. When speaking of Burgundy wines, commonly acceptable levels are as follows:

- Under 15 years old – less than 2,5 cms
- 15 to 30 years old – up to 4 cms
- Over 30 years old – up to 6 cms

It should be noted that ullages may change between publication of the catalogue and the sale. This may be caused by the ageing of the cork or by a change in the temperature of the storage conditions or the shipment of the wine. We will only accept responsibility for descriptions of conditions at the time of print of this catalogue and cannot accept responsibility for any loss resulting from failure of corks either before or after this point.

PARCELS

Same wines (producers, appellation, vintage, etc.) may be regarded as part of a parcel. The successful bidder on a lot in a parcel has the possibility to purchase each of the remaining unsold lots in this parcel at the same price, at the time of the bidding. Note that, in this catalogue, a parcel notice indicates all the numbers of its constitutive lots on its heading line.

CAUTIONARY NOTES

– Descriptions and estimates in this catalogue may be amended at our own discretion. Information is given orally or in writing, before or during the sale.

– Note that some producers tend to over-fill their bottles and a small quantity of wine may be trapped between the capsule and the cork and seep. This should not be confused with ullage (ullage is a natural occurrence in older wines).

FORMATS IN THIS SALE

- Bottle: 75 cl.
- Magnum: 150 cl.

conditions of sale

These conditions of sale govern the contractual relations between Baghera/wines Auction & Trading SA (“Baghera/wines”), the seller whose details are indicated in the Sales Commission document (“Seller”), any participant in the auction or traded or over-the-counter, as well as any bidder and the highest bidder, excluding contractual relations between Baghera/wines and the Seller.

In case of conflict between these conditions of purchase and the terms and conditions of sale, the general terms and conditions of sale shall prevail. These purchase conditions can be modified at any time, in writing or orally during the sale. By participating in any capacity whatsoever in an auction or a private sale organized at Baghera/wines’ discretion, you agree to be bound by these conditions. You should therefore read them carefully before doing so.

1. BUYER

The last bidder at the stroke of the gavel (the “Buyer”) wins the bid on the lot of items (the “lot”). In case of dispute between two or more bidders, the lot will immediately be relisted.

2. AUCTION PROCEDURE

The bailiff accepts the bids of those present at the sale, phone bidders as well as absentee bidders. The stroke of the gavel indicates the final bid awarding the lot to the Purchaser.

The bailiff speaks out and records the name or number of the Buyer.

3. TRANSFER OF RISK AND PROPERTY

Once awarded to the Buyer, the risks and ownership of the lot(s) pass to the Buyer.

4. ABSENTEE BIDDING

Baghera/wines can place bids on customers’ instruction, if you are unable to attend the auction in person, Baghera/wines and its employees or agents cannot be held responsible for failure in the transmission of these instructions during the auction.

In the case where two identical bidding instructions match the highest bidding, the lot will be awarded to the first bidder.

Baghera/wines reserves the right in its sole discretion, to refuse bids from a buyer’s instructions in case the information and documents submitted as proof of identity, i.e. the identity of the beneficial owner, should prove to be false, incomplete, ambiguous or inadequate.

5. TERMS OF AUCTION

The bailiff has the right at its absolute discretion to refuse any bid, to advance the bidding as it may decide, to withdraw or divide any Lot, to combine any two or more Lots. Any bid must be at least 10% higher than the previous bid. The bailiff can, however, change this percentage during the auction. The Seller as well as any person instructed by the former cannot bid on their own lots. Only Baghera/wines may bid on behalf of the Seller.

6. ESTIMATE

The estimate of each lot is based on prices reached during previous auctions for similar lots.

It is subject to change and does not constitute any guarantee or indication of the actual final sale price. The estimate does not include costs such as the Buyer’s premium and additional costs (refer to section 8. below).

7. RESERVE PRICE

The reserve price is the confidential minimum price at which the Seller agrees to sell the Lot. If the reserve price is not reached, Baghera/wines may reject the last bid and set a new starting price equal to or above the reserve price. In case no bid matches or is above the reserve price, Baghera/wines shall withdraw the lot without adjudging it to anyone. Baghera/wines, however, reserves the right to organise a private sell after the auction, in which case the price shall not be lower than the reserve price, subject to agreement by the Seller for a price below the reserve price.

8. BUYER’S PREMIUM AND ADDITIONAL COSTS

The buyer’s premium is 20% plus 7,7% Value added tax (VAT) on the hammer price and buyer’s premium. The total amount of the hammer price of each of lot purchased, plus the buyer’s premium, plus VAT is the final price to acquire the lot(s). Please note that other taxes may arise after collection of the goods.

This tax (VAT) is refunded to any buyer domiciled outside Switzerland if, but only if, Baghera/wines receives from such buyer an export declaration in respect of a purchased lot which has been stamped by Swiss customs.

All buyers should note that local sales taxes or use taxes may become payable upon import of items following purchase. Buyers should obtain their own advice in this regard.

9. EXCHANGE RATES

In some auctions, in order to ensure proper information for the Buyer, a currency converter is made available. The data displayed are provided for information only and Baghera/wines assumes no responsibility in this regard.

10. PRE-AUCTION VIEWING

Prospective buyers are encouraged to inspect the property at the pre-sale viewing, which can be attended at no charge by appointment only (please contact office@bagherawines.com). Bidders accept responsibility for carrying out inspections and investigations, during previewing, to satisfy themselves as to the lots in which they may be interested.

Baghera/wines may also provide condition reports. The absence of reference to the condition of a lot in the catalogue description does not imply that the lot is free from faults or imperfections.

11. NO WARRANTY

Baghera/wines only acts as agent to the Seller. The sale is passed directly between the Seller and the Buyer. Baghera/wines shall not be responsible for any defects in the lots nor do we guarantee the accuracy of the information concerning the producer, origin, date, age, authenticity, provenance, weight or condition of any Lot. None of Baghera/wines agents have authority to give any guarantees in this respect. All statements made in catalogues, advertisements or brochures concerning Baghera/wines sales only express opinions and are no guarantee from Baghera/wines or the Seller. All persons concerned are expected to inquire before the auction, about the description and condition and of the lots and of possible defects or possible damage or repairs which have been, or need to be, carried out.

12. BIDDERS REGISTRATION

Prospective buyers who would bid for the first time with Baghera/wines are asked to provide the following documents, at least 48 hours in advance, in order to give Baghera/wines enough time to process and approve the registration for the auction:

- Individuals: government-issued photo identification (such as a driving licence, national identity card, or passport) and, if not shown on the ID document, proof of current address, for example a utility bill/bank statement.

- Corporate clients: a photocopy of the company register.

- For other business structures such as trusts, offshore companies or partnerships, please contact Baghera/wines’ CFO (fjaquillard@bagherawines.com) for advice on the information you should supply.

- A financial reference in the form of a recent bank statement or a reference from your bank.

- Persons registering to bid on behalf of someone who has not previously bid or consigned with Baghera/wines should bring identification documents not only for themselves but also for the party on whose behalf they are bidding, together with a signed letter of authorisation from that party.

Please note, Baghera/wines is entitled to request a deposit in CHF in order to ensure the bidders’ final registration. If the bidder is unsuccessful and does not owe Baghera/wines any debt, the deposit will be refunded (i.e. the received CHF amount) in full, 7 days after the sale. Baghera/wines is entitled to change the deposit pre-registration procedures and requirements at their own discretion without prior notice.

13. BIDDER RESPONSIBILITY

Bidding at Auction

Bids may be executed in person by paddle during the auction, in writing prior to the sale by telephone or by live bidding.

Bidding in Person

To bid in person, you will need to register for and collect a numbered paddle before the auction begins. Proof of identity will be required. New clients are encouraged to register at least 48 hours in advance of a sale to allow sufficient time for us to process your information. All lots sold will be invoiced to the name and address to which the paddle has been registered and invoices cannot be transferred to other names and addresses. Please do not mislay your paddle; in the event of loss, inform the Sales Clerk immediately. At the end of the sale, please return your paddle to the registration desk.

Bidding by Telephone

If you cannot attend the auction, you may bid live on the telephone with one of our multi-lingual staff members. This service must be arranged at least 72 hours in advance of the sale, especially if you wish to bid in a language other than English. We also recommend that you leave an emergency bid which we can execute on your behalf just in case we are unable to reach you by telephone. Please note that telephone bids may be recorded (by bidding on the telephone, you consent to the recording of your conversation). We suggest that you leave a maximum bid, excluding the buyer’s premium and VAT, which we can execute on your behalf in the event we are unable to reach you by telephone.

Online Live Bidding — ~~B~~live

If you cannot attend the auction in person, you may bid online on our online live bidding platform, available on our website at www.bagherawines.auction. You must pre-register at least 36 hours before the start of the auction in order to be approved by our bid department. Please note that corporate firewalls may cause difficulties for online bidders. Baghera/wines’ ~~B~~live platform will be available on mobile devices as well as computers.

Absentee Bids

If you are unable to attend an auction in person, you may give Baghera/wines instructions to bid on your behalf. Our member of staff will then try to purchase the lot(s) of your choice for the lower price possible. Please note this service is free, totally confidential and offered as a convenience to clients who are unable to attend the sale. In the event of identical bids, the earliest received will take precedence. Although our representative will make every effort, Baghera/wines will not be responsible for error or failure to execute bids.

Bidding Increments

Bidding generally opens with the low estimate and advances in increments of up to 10% subject to the auctioneer’s discretion. The auctioneer retains the right to call bids at his own discretion – bids steps are shown on the Guide for Absentee Bidders on page 402.

Currency and Currency Converter

The sale is conducted in Swiss francs. Any other amounts shown in this catalogue and on the currency converter are for guidance only and are not legally binding. Baghera/wines declines all responsibility for any mistakes on the currency converter.

When bidding, the person assumes personal accountability to pay the price and any other applicable taxes or charges, unless it has been explicitly agreed in writing with Baghera/wines, prior to the auction, that the bidder only acts as an agent on behalf and in the name of a third party, acknowledged and accepted by Baghera/wines, and that the said party shall be solely responsible for payment of the Price.

The fall of the auctioneer’s hammer indicates the final bid. The auctioneer will call out and record the name or “paddle” number of the buyer. If your written bid is successful, you will be notified the day following the sale by email. Bidding may be re-opened at the auctioneer’s discretion.
