IT'S WINE O'CLOCK !

Dear Friends,

Following our first opus crowned with success in March – the Lafite auction sold 100% – we are proud to present this Wine o'clock №2 dedicated to the sole Sassicaia, the Tuscan jewel.

Wine o'clocks are entertaining live online auction sales, where lot prices go from high to low, decreasing over a limited span of time, giving you the opportunity to buy high-end wines, throughout the world, at your fair price with one single click and no possible outbidding! Time elapses as prices fall, bringing a hint of emotion to exhilarating and off-the-wall sales.

This April Wine o'clock auction features an unique Sassicaia collection of bottles and magnums spanning over 3 decades, from 1988 to 2003, offering a range of 13 different vintages in total. Amongst which, Sassicaia-lovers will be thrilled to uncover the highly prized 1988, 1990 and 1997 vintages.

Make your choice amongst these bottles and magnums originating from an unblemished private Swiss cellar, all offered in their original packagings – cartons or wooden cases depending on the vintage. As one of Italy's most exclusive and acclaimed wines, this Sassicaia auction is a tremendous opportunity to make your Italian dream come true.

Our Only Sassicaia Wine o'clock will start at 2 pm precisely (Swiss time!) on Tuesday 19th of April. Be on time, it will go fast and us Swiss don't mess with time!

So watch out, it's almost Wine o'clock!

—1—

Pre-register!

In order to be able to take part in the Wine o'clocks, you must pre-register before they take place. After your registration is validated (which takes a maximum of 12 hours), you have your personal login details, which will enable you to get involved with all the Baghera Wine o'clocks. These details will also give you access to your personal client account, so that you know your purchase amounts for each sale you participate in.

Make your choice!

A few days before the date of the sale, the catalogue can be accessed on the website. Browse this online catalogue. For each lot, it shows you a definitive list, detailed descriptions of the wines and high-definition photos, too.

—3—

Make your bid!

At this stage, you can enter your bids at a set price if you cannot log in during the sale. These bids will be executed during the sale, on your behalf. In the event where 2 bids were left at the same price, priority will be given to whichever was received first.

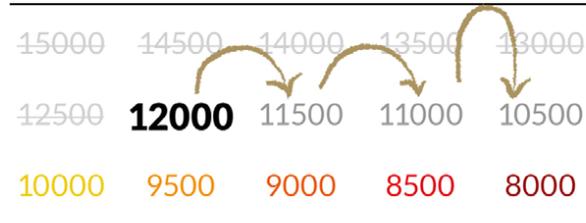

—4—

Get ready!

On the specific date and time of the Wine o'clock, lots are put up for sale. Each lot is announced with a high price and a low price.

—5—

Tic...

Bids start at the high price, and fall progressively to the low price, in regular decrements. These decrements succeed each other, at the same frequency, and are displayed on your screen.

—6—

Tac...

The countdown displayed at the top of the screen shows you the number of seconds before the next decrement, falling to the lower price. A reminder of the current decrement amount is shown just below.

—7—

Click it!

The first user to click on "Buy" wins the auction. However, written bids placed and recorded by other bidders have precedence over live bids.

—8—

Keep going!

The next lot is then offered under the same principle, until the last lot has been auctioned.

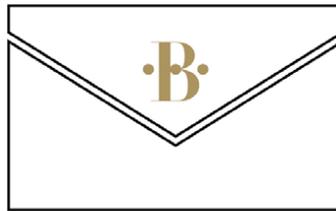

—9—

Congrats!

If you have won one or several lots during the sale (live or following absentee bid orders), you receive - once the sale has finished - an email summarising your purchases (information also available in your personal client account).

—10—

Thank you!

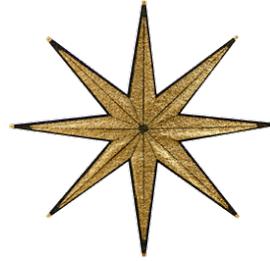

Baghera Wines will then contact you for invoicing and delivering your wines. Please note that a buyer's premium of 20% (exc. VAT) will be added to the final bid price for each lot you win during these Wine o'clock sales.

Happy clicking!

A SELECTION OF SASSICAIA

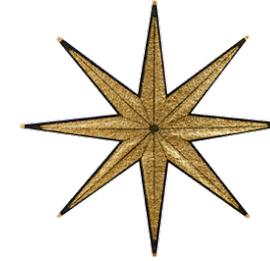

THE SASSICAIA STORY...

The Incisa della Rocchetta family originates from the Province of Asti in Piedmont. A student in Pisa from 1921 to 1925, the Marquis Mario Incisa della Rocchetta (1899 - 1983) found that a wine produced from vineyards in nearby Monte di Vecchiano reminded him of the unmistakable bouquet of an impressive Bordeaux wine which he had "barely tasted rather than drunk" at his grandfather's house when he was 14 years old. The similarity that the Marquis noticed between the two crus (both were Cabernet wines and left to age before being tasted) was to lead to the future Sassicaia. Mario Incisa made it his goal to produce a wine of this type one day, with the specific quality of improving with age. In 1930, he married the noblewoman Clarice della Gherardesca, who brought him the domaine of San Guido (2,700 hectares) in Bolgheri, Tuscany, as her dowry. Between 1930 and 1935, in his estate of la Rocchetta in Piedmont, his attempts at ageing Pinot Noir in casks proved successful. As his knowledge of French red wines increased, he quickly came to the conclusion that Cabernet was more suited to Tuscany, and closest to the type of wine which had impressed him when he was younger.

Mario settled permanently in Bolgheri in 1942. He looked around for an area suitable for his future experiments with wine. He chose poor and stony ground, situated at an altitude of 350 m high and south-east facing, like the Côte d'Or and the Médoc areas. He then planted 1,000 Cabernet-Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc vines (around 1.5 hectares). At the time, the newly harvested wine was unanimously judged as "very bad" by a handful of experts. As a result of this humiliation he forgot the project for a while. Even so, each year he put aside a few cases of wine and eventually the Marquis timidly brought out some bottles of Cabernet from the early years. Over time each vintage, whether from a good year or not, had developed the characteristics of a fine wine. He realised that his reward had finally come. So, in 1955, he expanded the vineyard to 2.5 hectares. In 1965, Mario decided this time to add two 12 hectare vineyards at an altitude of 100 m instead of 350 m. Until the 1967 vintage the wine was kept for private consumption.

The Incisa della Rocchetta family had no experience in commercialising wine. Close cousins from the famous Antinori family signed a sort of agreement. They brought their age-old experience and their professional know-how to distribute the 1968 vintage, the first officially produced to the tune of 3,000 bottles (the back label indicated 7,300). In addition they made available the talent of their great wine expert, Giacomo Tachis, who was inspired by French methods including maturing wine in barrels and advocated yields of 30 to 35 hl/ha. Success came immediately. The fruitful collaboration with the Antinoris came to an end with the 1982 vintage. Since then Sassicaia has been commercialised by Tenuta San Guido in Bolgheri.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

These conditions of sale govern the contractual relations between Baghera Wines Auction & Trading SA ("Baghera Wines"), the seller whose details are indicated in the Sales Commission document ("Seller"), any participant in the auction or traded or over-the-counter, as well as any bidder and the highest bidder, excluding contractual relations between Baghera Wines and the Seller.

In case of conflict between these conditions of purchase and the terms and conditions of sale, the general terms and conditions of sale shall prevail. In the event of conflict between the English and French versions of these purchase conditions, the French version (available on bagherawines.com) shall prevail. These purchase conditions can be modified at any time, in writing or orally during the sale. By participating in any capacity whatsoever in an auction or a private sale organised by Baghera Wines discretion, you agree to be bound by these conditions of purchase.

1. AUCTION PROCEDURE

Baghera Wines organises only online sales called 'Wine o'Clock'. These sales are processed automatically.

2. BUYER

The first customer to click at any bid step (the "Buyer") stops the sale of the concerned lot and wins the bid on the lot of items (the "lot").

3. TRANSFER OF RISK AND PROPERTY

Once awarded to the Buyer, the risks and ownership of the lot pass to the Buyer.

4. ABSENTEE BIDDING

If a customer is unable to participate at the auction online, he still has the possibility to leave absentee orders on Baghera Wines website prior to the sale.

Baghera Wines reserves the right in its sole discretion, to refuse bids from a buyer's instructions in case the information and documents submitted as proof of identity, i.e. the identity of the beneficial owner, should prove to be false, incomplete, ambiguous or inadequate.

5. TERMS OF AUCTION

The bid steps decrease from high to low estimate of the lot. All lots have 16 bid steps lasting for 10 seconds. The first bidder to click at any step stops the sale of the concerned lot and wins the lot. There is no possibility to outbid this lot.

If no one bids on the lot and once the 10 seconds of the last step are passed the sale of the lot ends. Then the sale of the next lot begins. The lots are sold one at a time according to the catalogue order.

The Seller as well as any person instructed by the former cannot bid on their own lots.

6. ESTIMATE

The estimate of each lot is based on prices reached during previous auctions for similar lots. It is subject to change and does not constitute any guarantee or indication of the actual final sale price. The estimate does not include costs such as the buyer's commission or VAT.

7. RESERVE PRICE

The reserve price is the confidential minimum price at which the Seller agrees to sell the Lot. If the reserve price is not reached, Baghera Wines may reject the last bid and set a new starting price equal to or above the reserve price. In case no bid matches or is above the reserve price, Baghera Wines shall withdraw the lot without adjudging it to anyone. Baghera Wines, however, reserves the right to organise a private sell after the auction, in which case the price shall not be lower than the reserve price, subject to agreement by the Seller for a price below the reserve price.

8. BUYER'S PREMIUM AND PRICES

The buyer's premium is 20% plus 8% Value added tax (VAT) on the hammer price and buyer's premium. The total amount of the hammer price of each of lot purchased, plus the buyer's premium, plus VAT is the final price.

This tax (VAT) is refunded to any buyer domiciled outside Switzerland if, but only if, Baghera Wines receives from such buyer an export declaration in respect of a purchased lot which has been stamped by Swiss customs.

Buyers from outside Switzerland should note that local sales taxes or use taxes may become payable upon import of items following purchase. Buyers should obtain their own advice in this regard.

Baghera Wines may also provide condition reports. The absence of reference to the condition of a lot in the catalogue description does not imply that the lot is free from faults or imperfections.

11. NO WARRANTY

Baghera Wines only acts as agent to the Seller. The sale is passed directly between the Seller and the Buyer. Baghera Wines shall not be responsible for any defects in the lots nor do we guarantee the accuracy of the information concerning the producer, origin, date, age, authenticity, provenance, weight or condition of any Lot.
