when philanthropy and wine come together...

The BSB Foundation was established in 2014 with the realization that 20% of its students were actually requiring financial support; it sets its goals around 3 main objectives: Excellence, Equality, Entrepreneurship.

It has since delivered more than 500 scholarships thanks to the support of many sponsors, companies and alumni alike.

With the continued need for more financial support, it was natural that the wine community was a good place to partner with since one of BSB's main strategic focus' has come to be through its dedicated institution of worldwide reference, the School of Wine & Spirits Business.

Thanks to 2 members of the Foundation Executive Committee, Jeremy Seysses and Antoine Prudent, we created a "Donor Wine Club" reaching out to the wine community and looking at ways to raise funds to support our students. Leveraging their network, they came up with the idea of a fundraising event through a wine auction leading us to today's first and finest edition: "I (wine) a dream!"

Thankyou to all the generous donors for their prestigious wine! And thankyou to Baghera/wines for making it possible through their platform, and for allowing philanthropy and wine to come together!

Terms and conditions of sale

Baghera Wines Auction France SAS is an operator of voluntary sales of furniture by public auction governed by articles L. 321-4 et seq. of the French Commercial Code defining the ethical obligations of operators of voluntary sales.

These conditions of sale govern the contractual relationship between Baghera/wines France (the “Company”), the seller whose contact details are indicated in the sales mandate (the “Seller”), as well as any bidder at the auction or any other buyer (the “Buyer”) in the context of the sale of lots (the “Lot(s)").

These conditions of sale may be amended at any time, either in writing or orally during the sale. By participating in any capacity whatsoever in an auction or private sale organised at the discretion of the Company, you agree to be bound by these conditions. We therefore advise you to read them carefully before participating.

1. the principle of the auctions

The Company organises live, telephone and online auctions.

Online auctions are held on the website (www.bagherawines.com), which is a technical platform enabling remote electronic participation in public auctions held in auction rooms.

2. transfer of risks and property

As soon as the word “awarded” is pronounced, the risks and ownership of the Lot(s) are transferred to the Buyer.

3. absentee bidding

The Company may place bids under the instructions of its customers if the latter are unable to attend the auction in person.

The Company and its employees or agents cannot be held liable for failure to carry out these instructions during the auction.

In the event that two identical bidding instructions correspond to the highest bid, the Lot will be awarded to the first bidder. The Company reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to refuse bids based on a Buyer’s instructions in the event that the information and documents presented as proof of identity, i.e. the identity of the beneficial owner, prove to be false, incomplete, ambiguous or inadequate.

4. conditions for bidding

To participate in a sale taking place exclusively online, you must first register and provide your bank card details.

5. estimate

The valuation of each Lot is based on prices achieved at previous auctions for similar lots. It is subject to change and is not a guarantee or indication of the final sale price. The estimate does not include costs such as adjudication fees and additional costs (see Article 7. below).

6. reserve price

The reserve price is the minimum confidential price at which the Seller agrees to sell the lot. If the reserve price is not reached, the Company may refuse the last bid and set a new starting price equal to or higher than the reserve price. If no bid matches or exceeds the reserve price, the Company shall withdraw the lot without awarding it. However, the Company reserves the right to organise a private sale after the auction, in which case the price will not be lower than the reserve price, subject to the Seller’s agreement to a price below the reserve price.

7. auction fees and additional costs

7.1 Special Feature

For this special auction, whose proceeds will benefit integrally the BSB Foundation, no buyer’s premium will be invoiced by Baghera/wines.

7.2 Duties and taxes

In the case of Lots put up for sale by persons who are not subject to VAT, only the commission paid by the Buyer, calculated according to the VAT margin system, is subject to value added tax. In this case, the VAT cannot be reclaimed, including by professional Purchasers. In application of the VAT margin system, VAT may not appear on the invoice issued by the Company.

In the case of Lots put up for sale by persons liable to VAT, the ordinary law regime is applicable and VAT will be applied to the auction price plus the commission. The VAT charged will be indicated on the invoice and may be reclaimed by professional Purchasers in accordance with the rules applicable to them.

For taxable professionals, the indication of whether VAT is recoverable or non-recoverable appears in the description of the lots offered for sale.

7.3 Customers not residing in mainland France

Customers of the Company whose place of residence is outside mainland France are informed that customs duties and excise duties are not included in the price of the commission and are invoiced to customers in accordance with current legislation. Customers may contact the Company's customer service department to find out about these rates.

The VAT regime for remote sales is likely to be applied, which entails the application of the VAT of the country of the Purchaser resident in the European Union.

7.4 Export and Import

Under certain conditions, the Company may be exempted from applying VAT or authorised to refund it on Lots exported by a non-EU resident Buyer who exports the Lot outside the European Union.

The export of any goods from France, and the import into another country, may be subject to obtaining authorisations (export certificates, customs authorisations). It is the Buyer's responsibility to check the required authorisations.

7.5 Legal complexity

The above rules are provided for information purposes only and the Company accepts no liability for them. Each Seller and Buyer must check the tax regime applicable to them.

8. exchange rates

In certain auctions, in order to ensure adequate information for the Buyer, a currency converter is made available. The data displayed is provided for information purposes only and the Company accepts no liability whatsoever in relation thereto.

9. pre-auction viewing

Prospective Bidders are encouraged to inspect Lots at the pre-auction viewing, which may be attended free of charge by appointment only. Please contact Dr. Wine Selection, Mathilde Roizot: + 33 3 80 55 36 57 (team@drwineselection.com).

When: Monday September 25th and Tuesday September 26th, 2023.

Where: Dr Wine Selection 7 Rue Docteur Stein 21000 Dijon – France

Bidders accept responsibility for carrying out inspections and investigations during this visit to ascertain which Lots are of interest to them.

The Company may also provide condition reports. The absence of reference to the condition of a Lot in the catalogue description does not imply that the Lot is free from defects or imperfections.

10. guarantees

10.1 Guarantees given by the Company to the Buyer concerning the Lots

It should be noted that the legal guarantee of conformity does not apply to voluntary public auction sales of second-hand goods, provided that the Buyer is able to attend in person.

a | Right of withdrawal

In accordance with article L. 221-28, 11° of the French Consumer Code, the right of withdrawal does not apply to contracts concluded at a public auction.

Notwithstanding the provisions of article L. 221-28 of the French Consumer Code, if the Company decides to put an unsold Lot back up for sale by means of a private sale, in electronic form, the individual Buyer is entitled to a right of withdrawal under the following conditions.

The withdrawal period expires fourteen (14) days after the day on which the Buyer, or a third party other than the carrier and designated by the Buyer, takes physical possession of the goods. To exercise the right of withdrawal, the Buyer must notify the Company of his/her decision to withdraw from this contract by means of an unambiguous statement (e.g. letter sent by post, fax or e-mail). The Buyer may use the model withdrawal form provided in the Appendix to the General Terms and Conditions.

In the event of withdrawal from this contract, the Company will reimburse all payments received from the Buyer, including delivery costs, without undue delay, within fourteen (14) days from the date on which the Company is informed of the Buyer's decision to withdraw from this contract, or from the date on which the Lot is effectively returned. The Company will make the refund using the same means of payment as that used for the initial transaction, unless the Buyer expressly agrees to a different means.

The Buyer must send or return the items to the Company at the following address: Baghera/wines France, 13 rue Paul Cabet – 21700 Nuits-Saint-Georges, without undue delay and, in any event, no later than fourteen (14) days after having communicated his/her decision to withdraw from this contract. This deadline is deemed to have been met if the Buyer returns the goods before the fourteen (14) day deadline has expired. The Buyer is only liable for the depreciation of items resulting from handling other than that required to check the contents of the order or resulting from improper storage.

b | Guarantee of authenticity

If the Company sells a wine which the Buyer subsequently demonstrates to the Company's reasonable satisfaction to be a "counterfeit", subject to the conditions below, the Company will cancel the sale and refund to the Buyer the full amount paid by the Buyer (in the original currency). Definition: "counterfeit" means a wine, which in the reasonable opinion of the Company, is an imitation created to mislead as to producer and vintage, where the exact description of producer and vintage is not reflected by the description in the catalogue.

The guarantee is granted for a period of five (5) years from the date of the auction, for the sole benefit of the original Buyer and cannot be transferred to a third party.

In order to benefit from this guarantee, the Buyer must:

(i) inform the Company in writing within 14 days of becoming aware of a possible counterfeit, of his or her reasons for believing that the wine is counterfeit. The Buyer must specify the number of the Lot and the date of the sale at which it was purchased; and

(ii) return the lot to the Company in the same condition as on the date of sale to the Buyer and be able to transfer the title deed for the lot, free of any claim from a third party subsequent to the date of sale. The Company has the discretion to waive any of the above. The Company may require the Buyer to obtain, at his own expense, reports from two recognised and independent experts in the field, mutually acceptable to the Company and the Buyer.

The Company shall not be bound by any report produced by the Buyer, and reserves the right to seek additional expert advice at its own expense.

On the assumption that the Company decides to cancel the sale under this guarantee, the reasonable costs of two mutually agreed independent expert reports may be reimbursed to the Buyer.

10.2 Guarantees from the Seller to the Company concerning the Lots

The Seller guarantees to the Company:

(i) that in the event that he is the sole owner of the Lots, he holds an unlimited right to transfer ownership of the Lots to the Buyer, free of all rights and claims from third parties;

(ii) that in the event that he is not the owner of the Lots, that he is putting them up for sale on behalf of one or more third parties, or that he is a domiciliary company, which makes the rules on anti-money laundering and the financing of terrorism applicable; the Seller confirms in this respect that the documents and information sent to the Company in this context are correct and complete;

(iii) that he has complied with all requirements, legal or otherwise, relating to the export or import of the Lots and that he has notified the Company in writing of any failure by third parties to act in accordance with these requirements of which he may have become aware;

(iv) that he has communicated all information in his possession concerning the origin of the Lots;

(v) that he has notified the Company in writing of any material alteration to the Lots of which he is aware and of any concerns expressed by a third party regarding the ownership, condition and allocation of the Lots; He guarantees to have disclosed all factors or facts of which he is aware and which could, on the date hereof, affect the sale of the Lots. The Seller undertakes to inform the Company immediately of any facts or factors that may be revealed to him at any time prior to the sale of the Lots.

These facts and factors include, but are not limited to, all details concerning:

– Any attempt by the Seller or its representatives to sell the Lots within a period of five years prior to the date of the sale.

– Any questions relating to the Lot raised by third parties in connection with the ownership, authenticity, provenance or compliance with the legal procedures to be respected for the import and export of the Lots.

11. bidders registration

Prospective Buyers participating in an auction with the Company for the first time are requested to provide the following documents, at least 48 hours in advance, to allow sufficient time for the Company to process and approve the auction registration:

– Private individuals: government-issued photo ID, e.g. driving licence, identity card or passport and, if not on the ID document, proof of current address, e.g. electricity or water bill or bank statement.

– Companies: a recent copy (under 3 months) of the company register.

– For other structures such as trusts, offshore companies or partnerships, please contact the Company's accounts department (Ching-Hua Hsu | Accounting & Administrative Officer | + 41 22 910 46 30 or +41 79 792 01 02 (chinghua@bagherawines.com)) for advice on the information to be provided.

– A financial reference in the form of a statement or bank reference.

– Any person registering to bid on behalf of a third party who has not previously bid or consigned with the Company must bring identification documents not only for themselves but also for the third party on whose behalf they are bidding, together with a letter of authorisation signed by the third party.

Participation in any sale through the Company requires:

– to be of legal age in France, i.e. 18 or over, and to meet the legal requirements of the country of delivery chosen at the time of registration.

– to have the legal capacity required to give consent, or to have the authorisation of a person with parental authority, a tutor or a curator if the user is a minor or incapable.

– to comply with all the conditions of these general terms and conditions of sale.

The Company is entitled to ask the Buyer for a deposit in EUR in order to ensure the definitive registration of the bidders. If the bidder is not accepted and does not owe any debt to the Company, the deposit (i.e. the amount in EUR received) will be refunded in full 7 days after the sale.

The Company is entitled to modify the deposit procedures and pre-registration conditions at its own discretion and without prior notice.

12. terms and conditions of sale

The Company shall have full discretion in:

(i) the way in which the Lots will be described and illustrated in the catalogue or any additional document;

(ii) the place and manner in which they will be displayed and sold; decisions as to who will be admitted to the sale and auction;

(iii) the presentation of Lots at an exhibition; and

(iv) the use of an expert or a third party.

Any estimate given verbally or in writing is given as an indication only. It constitutes neither a guarantee nor a commitment as to the auction price that the Lots may eventually fetch.

The Seller may not withdraw the Lots from the sale without our prior written consent. The Company may withdraw Lots from the sale, or, at its discretion, postpone the sale until a reasonable date at any time if:

(i) the Company has reasonable doubts as to their ownership, authenticity or provenance, or as to the truth of any representations made;

(ii) the Seller is in breach of any agreement with the Company; or

(iii) the Company has reason to believe that the inclusion of the Lots in the sale could expose the Company or the Seller to legal action or damage their reputation.

If a Lot is withdrawn before the sale, the Company will charge a sum equivalent to 20% of the estimated value of the said Lot.

After the sale, the Seller is liable for all fees and commissions normally due.

The Company reserves the right to retain the Lots and to keep them until the resolution of any dispute if it learns that a third party is claiming ownership of the Lot.

13. results of the sale

If the bidder's bids are successful, he will be informed the day after the sale by e-mail.

The results of the sale are available on request. The Company cannot be held responsible for any errors or omissions, whatever the cause. Sellers will await their declaration of payment as confirmation of any sale proceeds.

13.1 Sale after auction

If Lots remain unsold at auction, unless otherwise instructed by the Seller, the Company shall be entitled, as exclusive agent, for a period of two (2) months following the auction to sell these Lots privately at a price that will provide the Seller with a net payment – i.e. after deduction of commissions and costs payable by the Seller – of an amount at least equal to that which would have been paid to the Seller if the Lots had been sold for an amount equal to the reserve price, or for any lower amount to which the Seller had previously agreed. In such cases, the Seller's obligations towards the Company and the Buyer in respect of such Lots shall be the same as if they had been sold at auction.

13.2 Unsold Lots

If all or part of the Lots remain unsold, are withdrawn from the sale or are not included in the sale, the Seller must collect them within 10 working days following the day of the sale. If the Seller does not collect the Lots by the end of this period, the Company will charge storage and insurance costs, and may have to call in a third party to move them, and will only hand over the Lots once it has received full payment of all storage, transport and insurance costs, as well as any other costs that the Company may have incurred.

13.3 Insurance

Unless otherwise agreed, the Company will automatically insure the Lots for amounts corresponding to its estimates. The insurance value is not a guarantee of the amount of the hammer price of the Lots. The Company will deduct its insurance and transport costs from the Seller at their actual cost. The Lot will remain insured for 10 working days following the sale, subject to possible re-sale at a later auction. If the Lots are not sold, they will then remain at the Seller's risk after this period. The Company will not accept any liability in the event of damage to the Lots.

If the Seller has given instructions not to insure the Lots under the conditions indicated above, the Lots will be at the Seller's risk for as long as the Buyer has not paid for them in full and the Company cannot be held responsible in the event of damage to or loss of the Lots. In the event of a claim or dispute against the Company, the Seller shall pay full indemnity to the Company, on first demand, for all costs incurred in connection with the said claim or dispute, including costs relating to its employees, its agents and the Buyer.

14. payment options and due dates

The price is payable in euros within seven days of the sale by the Buyer.

Payment for the Lot will be made in full, including all costs and taxes, even if an export licence is required.

On the eighth day after the sale, interest at the rate of 1% per month will be added to the amount due.

Payments may also be made in foreign currencies with legal tender status if this amount can be converted into Euros on the value date of the payment. To avoid any delay in the release of goods, prospective Buyers must provide bank references prior to the auction.

The Buyer must indicate his name and invoice number in his instructions to the bank. The Buyer is informed that the Company is entitled to refuse payments from any person other than the Reference Buyer and that payment of such amounts will be required. All costs relating to bank transfers shall be borne by the Buyer.

Payments can be made in euros at the time of sale, in cash, by credit or debit card, or by bank transfer to:

The Buyer is advised that transactions should preferably be made by bank transfer. If the Buyer wishes to pay in cash, he should contact the Company's finance department for advice before proceeding with payment and contact the Company's accounting department in order to comply with applicable regulations. The Company accepts all major credit cards, American Express, Visa and MasterCard to pay invoices. (A processing fee will apply). The Buyer at the auction is solely responsible for payment to the Company. The Company will not accept payment for Lots purchased from any party other than the Buyer, unless otherwise agreed between the Buyer and the Company prior to the sale. Goods may only be collected once payment has been made.

Subject to having received payment in full of the hammer price from the Buyer, as well as the buyer's commission and costs payable by the Buyer, the Company will transfer the amount due to the Seller within 35 working days following the sale, unless it has been notified in the meantime that the Lots are not authentic or do not comply with the guarantees provided for under the terms of these general terms and conditions. In the event of late payment by the Buyer, the Company will transfer the amount due within 7 days of receiving full payment from the Buyer.

15. non-payment

In the event of non-payment by the Buyer, after formal notice has remained unanswered, the goods may be put back up for sale, at the Seller's request, upon reiteration of the defaulting Buyer's bid. The defaulting Buyer will be charged a fixed re-sale fee of 10% of the amount of the order.

If the Seller does not make his request within three months of the auction, the sale is automatically cancelled, without prejudice to damages and interest owed by the defaulting Buyer, who may not use the cancellation of the sale to avoid his obligations.

Notwithstanding the above, the Company expressly reserves the right, at its sole discretion and at the Seller's expense, to accept special terms of payment of the price, to take steps to store and/or insure the Lots, to initiate or pursue any legal proceedings brought by or against the Buyer on such terms as the Company considers appropriate, to take all steps necessary to recover the amounts owed by the Buyer and, if possible, to return the Lot to the Seller.

16. collection and storage

All Lots are stored at the following address:

Dr Wine Selection

7 Rue Docteur Stein

21000 Dijon – France

All Lots may be collected once confirmation of full payment has been issued to the Buyer by the Company. Buyers are reminded that all Lots must be collected before November 15th, 2023.

Buyers are requested to contact Dr Wine Selection in advance to arrange collection of their Lot.

17. right of retention and delivery

In order to avoid any error in the auction process, to ensure the payment of invoices and to carry out – if necessary and in accordance with legal and regulatory requirements – the required checks on the Buyer and the identity of the beneficial owner, no lot may be removed during the sale. The Company is entitled to retain the lots until all sums due to the Company have been paid in full or until the Buyer has fulfilled all other obligations which the Company, in its absolute discretion, considers to be due, including compliance with anti-money laundering and anti-terrorist financing requirements.

In the event that a Buyer fails to meet the requirements of the checks to the satisfaction of the Company, the Company shall have the right to cancel the sale and take any other action as may be necessary or permitted by law. The transport service will take place once payment has been received.

18. non-collection or non-delivery

In the event that the Buyer, having fulfilled all his obligations under the General Terms and Conditions of Sale, does not collect or take delivery of the Lot within thirty (30) days of the auction, the Company may, in agreement with the Seller, and after notifying the Buyer of the cancellation of the sale, reoffer the Lot for sale by auction or privately. The Company reserves the right to invoice the Buyer for all storage, insurance and other costs that may arise, under the conditions set out in Article 16 above, between the date of the auction and the date of the effective cancellation of the sale. The Company reserves the right to retain the lots until all these costs have been paid.

19. false information

If the information or documents provided by the Buyer concerning his identity or that of the beneficial owner prove to be false, incomplete, ambiguous or insufficient, the Company may, at its sole discretion, cancel the sale and prosecute the defrauder. The Buyer will be responsible for all costs incurred.

20. liability

When bidding, the bidder assumes personal responsibility for paying the sale price and any other applicable taxes or charges, unless it has been explicitly agreed in writing with the Company, prior to the auction, that the bidder is acting solely as an agent for and on behalf of a third party, recognised and accepted by the Company, and that said third party will be solely responsible for payment of the price.

The Company declines all liability in the event of an error in the currency converter.

All participants in the sale, in whatever capacity, in particular as bidders, visitors or third parties, are liable for any damage, in particular to the Lots on display.

Unless otherwise agreed, the Company will assume its liability towards the Seller in the event of total or partial damage to the Lot, even in the case of transport. In all cases, the Company's liability is limited, prior to the sale, to the amount of the average estimate of the Lot, and, once the Lot has been awarded, to the amount of the award plus the costs to be borne by the Buyer. The liability that the Company agrees to assume as indicated above will take effect as soon as the Lot is delivered to the Company or as soon as the Lot is dispatched by the Seller or its agent, provided that the Lot is packaged and dispatched by a specialised carrier acting on the Company's instructions. The Company's liability will cease from the day on which the Buyer collects the Lot or, if the Lot is not collected immediately by the Buyer or has not been sold, at the latest at the end of the seventh day following the sale.

21. data protection

In accordance with the provisions of Law No. 78-17 of 6 January 1978, and Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of 25 May 2018, the Company may request as part of the provision of auction and related services that customers provide personal data. The Company may receive and retain a copy of government-issued identification, such as a passport or driving licence. We will use your personal data:

- (i) to provide auction and related services;
- (ii) to enforce these terms and conditions of sale;
- (iii) to carry out identity and credit checks;
- (iv) to implement and improve the management and operation of our business; and

(v) for other purposes described in our privacy policy published on our website at www.bagherawines.com and available on request by sending an email to Julie Carpentier (jearpentier@bagherawines.com).

The Company may pass on personal data to commercial partners, subject to obtaining the customer's prior consent. If the customer provides the Company with information that is defined by European data protection legislation as «sensitive», this must be expressly accepted by the Buyer when the account is created, or at the time of registration.

As part of these disclosures, personal data collected in the European Economic Area may be disclosed to countries outside the European Economic Area. By accepting these general terms and conditions of sale, the customer consents to this disclosure.

Please read our privacy policy at www.bagherawines.com for full information on personal data and data protection. The Company's premises may be subject to surveillance and video recording. Telephone calls for the purpose of bidding may also be recorded. We may process this information in accordance with our privacy policy.

22. miscellaneous

a | Taxes

If taxes are applicable on an amount paid by the Buyer, the latter shall be solely responsible for paying them at the rate and on the date required by the competent administration.

b | Severability provisions

If any provision of this agreement should be held by a court to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, such provision may be waived without invalidating the remaining provisions.

c | Prohibition on Assignment

The Buyer may not assign any benefit and/or obligation under this agreement with the Company and/or the Seller without our prior written consent.

d | Applicable law and jurisdiction

The general terms and conditions are governed by French law, subject to any more favourable provisions that may apply due to conflict of laws.

It is specified that, in accordance with the law, all civil liability claims arising from voluntary sales of furniture by public auction are subject to a limitation period of five years from the date of the auction.

All disputes relating to these conditions and sales will be submitted to the competent court in Dijon, regardless of the place of residence of the Buyer or the Seller.
