PASSION

Baghera/wines

AN EXPERTS OFFICE

Baghera/wines was established at the end of 2015 in Geneva by two passionate experts, who launched a specialized consultancy office exclusively dedicated to exceptional wines. Michael Ganne and Julie Carpentier joined forces, offering a new approach to high-end wine auctions, by placing cordiality and sharing at the very heart of the wine business.

Since then, Baghera/wines have become the #1 wine auctioneer in Europe, selling amongst other rarities, the “Private cellar of Domaine Henri Mayer” in June 2018, the world’s most important wine auction ever.

Alongside their auctions, the Baghera/wines team guides collectors in every dimension of highlighting a collection, focusing on tailor-made, one-to-one professional advice, outstanding wine sourcing and excellency.

In 2019 Baghera/wines opened their office in Hong-Kong. In 2020, Baghera/wines officially inaugurated its new Geneva establishment, incorporating a private club and boutique dedicated to fine wines, within the Beau-Rivage hotel, Geneva. In October 2022, the company further developed its activities in Asia, with the opening of Baghera/wines Singapore Ltd. holding physical and online auctions from early 2023. In the autumn of 2023, the house will be inaugurating a new wine club in Nuits-Saint-Georges, Burgundy.

TEAM

Michael Ganne

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Michael Ganne is originally from the Médoc region near Bordeaux and naturally chose to dedicate himself to the wine business. Yet his unswerving taste for novelty spanned well beyond the great Bordeaux wines of his native land.

A graduate of the International Vine and Wine Office with a Master of Wine Management, Michael has visited more than twenty-four countries and met with the most influential people in the business.

A strong promoter of the great vintage bottles he unearths, Michael auctioned some of the most glamorous sales as Head of Continental Europe for the Wine Department at Christie's. Yet, relentlessly looking for new perspectives, Michael decides to found his own auction house, Baghera/wines, in 2015.

Since Baghera/wines' creation, we owe Michael the most impressive world records, including the biggest wine auction ever: "Henri Jayer, The Heritage" which he auctioned in June 2018, selling for CHF 34,5M.

TEAM

Julie Carpentier

DEPUTY CEO

Julie Carpentier's past is deeply rooted to the Loire valley. These regional origins may very well have given her the desire to take the plunge and work in wineries and vineyards. Yet it may simply have been the encounter with her husband-to-be, an accomplished winemaker...

In a former life, Julie studied Art and Archaeology at the École du Louvre before joining Christie's Wine Department as Wine Specialist, where she dedicated her expertise to fine wines. Also a graduate from WSET, Julie has shown a remarkable understanding of native varieties together with an overall taste for exceptional and unique crus.

Thus, when Michael asked her to join him in the creation of Baghera/wines, she did not hesitate to be part of the venture as Deputy CEO, heading the team. Having developed strong ties with wine estates, especially in Burgundy, Julie enjoys meeting vintners and people of the vine, pursuing her defense for the recognition and promotion of the art of winemaking.

Francesco Lee

DIRECTOR ASIA

An early passionate, following his “soul of wine”, Francesco is a true enthusiast. Having travelled far and wide and tasted many legendary wines, he has shared his in-depth knowledge with connoisseurs worldwide and collectors for many years.

Originally working as an equities research analyst in a French investment bank, Francesco changed his career to the wine industry, joining Christie’s as Senior Wine Specialist and Associate VP in 2008, where he co-organized, amongst others, the Château Latour ex-cellar sale in 2011 in Hong-Kong.

Catching up on their mutual passion for fine wines, Michael and Francesco joined forces to develop and strengthen Baghera/wines’ presence throughout Asia. A fervent amateur of European culture and of exceptional French wines especially, Francesco loves bringing people and continents together over the finest crus.

Arthur Leclerc

DIRECTOR SINGAPORE

Arthur Leclerc, born in Geneva, comes from a family of restaurateurs who passed on the taste for cooking and sharing gourmet cuisine. An insatiable epicurean, Arthur is fascinated with all things food and trained in the kitchens of a gastronomic restaurant.

Arthur then went on to study at the prestigious École Hôtelière de Genève where he was particularly captivated by event management and oenology. He complemented his hospitality training with two in-house professional experiences at the Ritz Hotel in Paris and at the Salon International de la Haute Horlogerie in Geneva.

Whilst pursuing his passion for the study of wines and spirits, Arthur met Michael and Julie during the inaugural Baghera/wines auction. He joined the team as Sales & Events Officer during the organization of the “Henri Jayer, The Heritage” auction in 2018.

In the autumn of 2022, Arthur is strengthening Baghera/wines’ bonds with the Singaporean wine community by opening a branch in the city-state.

Pablo Alvarez

DIRECTOR GENEVA

Pablo, originally from Spain, has always been in close contact with the fine wine world as his family runs one of the most prestigious wineries in Spain.

An Agricultural Engineer graduated from the Madrid University, Pablo chose to follow his passion for the wine industry and specialise in crop science with emphasis on viticulture and oenology.

With his technical and analytical mindset combined with his passion for fine wines, Pablo joined Baghera/wines in 2019 as Director for the Geneva office.

At his early career stages, Pablo gained financial knowledge by working several years in Private Equity. But his always increasing curiosity led Pablo to continue learning about the wine business by studying at the WSET. Combined with his other passion fine dining, he has been travelling around the world visiting some of the most prestigious wineries and restaurants.

Camille Balboux

WINE SPECIALIST

Camille is a native Burgundian whose passion for wine and authentic regional products was undoubtedly shaped during her childhood spent among the vineyards of Romanée-Conti.

As she grew older, she dreamed of turning this budding passion into a career. At the age of 18, she left Dijon for Lille, where she studied at IÉSEG School of Management. Camille earned a Master’s degree in International Negotiation and Business Development. Alongside her studies, she explored the wine industry and discovered the technical and commercial aspects of the trade through internships in various wineries.

In March 2023, Camille joined Baghera/wines for her final internship, and she is now taking on an exciting new role as a Wine Specialist in the auction department.

TEAM

Olivia Bouët-Willaumez

ART DIRECTOR

An artist’s daughter and grand-daughter, of British and French origins, Olivia has always been sensitive to the intricate geography of signs. Brought up in a multicultural artistic environment on 2 languages, classical music, jazz, PG Tips tea, ponies, cats&dogs and books, she fell in love with Hitchcock’s œuvre at an early age and decided to study Dramatic Art in the United Kingdom. She later pursued her acting training in Paris and Moscow and worked as an actress for the theater and cinema for fifteen years.

Family heredity compellingly made its way back, as the atavic urge for drawing and all things graphic sprung up again. Whether sketching portraits on paper tablecloths in restaurants or in her countless notebooks at the terraces of literary cafes in Paris, the fascination for signs on paper led Olivia to join some of the largest publishing houses in Paris and French press groups.

Michael invited her to join Baghera/wines as Art Director in 2015 and she has since signed Baghera’s graphic identity and catalogues.

CONSULTANT

Asta Ponzó

PRESS & PUBLIC RELATIONS

Born in Geneva, after studying law at the University of Geneva, Asta Ponzó swiftly branched off into the luxury goods industry. A skilled linguist, she communicates with ease with her network and clients in French, English, Croatian, German, Italian and Spanish. With extensive technical experience in the Creation and Product Development department at Vacheron Constantin, a Richemont group company and the oldest watchmaking Manufacture in the world, Asta Ponzó spent five years working with decision-makers in the watchmaking industry, thus consolidating both her technical grounding in the field of fine watchmaking and her international network.

In 2003, her career path led her to the position of Communication Manager for Vacheron Constantin a company of the Richemont Group working on the Swiss market. As part of this role, she brought innovative solutions to events, PR strategy, media buying and HNWI customer care. In 2012, after spending more than 14 years working for prestigious watch and jewellery companies, Asta founded her own communications consulting firm: The Luxury PR.

Gary Bovagne

BOUTIQUE MANAGER

Originally from Burgundy, Gary is indisputably passionate about gastronomy and the fruit of the vine. After starting his career in the restaurant business in England, he was later able to follow his passion at Le Chat-Botté * 18/20 where, thanks to felicitous encounters, he joined the team of sommeliers at the Michelin-starred restaurant.

He advanced within the establishment and was appointed Head Sommelier of the restaurant. After 14 years of working and learning, his daughter was born and he decided it was time to dedicate more time to his family.

Henceforth, it is with the Baghera/wines team, as Manager of La Boutique by Baghera/wines, that he opens a new chapter and, like the rest of the team, Gary will be keen to offer advice and provide you with services to make your experience at Baghera/wines unique.

Charlotte Jimenez

CLUB MANAGER

Charlotte, who is from the Périgord in the Dordogne, has certainly succeeded in keeping intact her passion for culture and history, which early on inspired this epicurean, in love with the rich heritage of the South-West, be it gastronomic or viticultural!

After two years spent at the Faculty of Law in Périgueux, Charlotte headed for Burgundy where she completed her Bachelor's degree in Wine & Spirits at INSEEC in Beaune. Her encounters with many local professionals confirmed Charlotte's desire to place her passions – wine, marketing and events – at the heart of her future professional career.

Particularly attracted by the world of luxury and fine wines, Charlotte joined the Baghera/wines team in January 2020. To reinforce her 'wine & luxury' specialisation, she graduated the INSEEC CREA Master in Geneva in 2023 while managing the 1865 club in Geneva and supervising the opening of the Nuits-Saint-Georges affiliate club in Burgundy.

Florian Luthi

PHOTOGRAPHY MANAGER

Florian graduated from the Ecole Cantonale d'Arts de Lausanne (ECAL) in 2012, after completing the Bachelor in Photography. Since then, he has been working as a freelance photographer for various reputable companies and clients. After several years in Lausanne and several artistic residencies (Genoa, Barcelona), Florian seized the opportunity to do a Master's degree in London at the famous Royal College of Art in 2017. As he is fond of saying, he immersed himself in that vibrant city for several years, before finally coming back to Switzerland, more precisely to Geneva, the city where he was born, but where he had never lived.

Florian continued his work as an artist in parallel to his professional assignments where he frequently used the photographic medium and film in more experimental projects.

Inspired by theatre, literature, black coffee and wine, the encounter between Florian and Baghera/wines quickly turned into a fine and creative collaboration, combining many common passions and inspirations.

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Born in Geneva to a Sri Lankan wine enthusiast father and a Finnish mother passionate about numbers, Kishan is the perfect image of these two contrasting personalities. He discovered and flourished in the world of gastronomy and wine at the Hotel Management School in Geneva.

He then continued his studies, specialising in financial management at the Haute Ecole de Gestion in Geneva. Before joining the Baghera team, Kishan held various positions in the hotel world, notably in cost control in a Geneva palace. He was also in charge of the development of a financial plan for the opening of a boutique hotel in Sri Lanka.

It was at this point in his career that he met Michael and Arthur, who is also a former student of the Hotel School, and the whole Baghera/wines team, and was offered the chance to combine his two passions, for wine and numbers, in the role of CFO of Baghera/wines.

Cédric Lefrançois

CELLAR MANAGER

Originally from the Ain region on the French-Swiss border, Cédric joined the Baghera/wines team in autumn 2021. Trained in international logistics, Cédric has worked for more than 20 years in and around Geneva.

For the past 15 years, Cédric has been in charge of a professional fine wine warehouse in the centre of Geneva, where he supervised and developed the storage services and imparted to the teams his knowledge and skills in national and international logistics.

Being in close contact with the finest bottles and the most discerning collectors throughout his career, Cédric has put to good use his interest in wines and spirits, and today benefits from a vast experience in the great wines of the world.

When Cédric joined the Baghera/wines adventure in 2021, it was the culmination of a long professional relationship with Julie and Michael, in the service of excellence and of wine, a passion that is undoubtedly at the very heart of this insatiable epicurean.

Virginie Maison

AUCTIONEER

Coming from a family of artists and entrepreneurs, authentic bon vivants and landlovers of the Limousin, art and gastronomy brought colour and flavour to Virginie's childhood. As a law student, she immediately took a liking to wine, to this region of terroir, of creation, of sharing, of sensory experience and pleasure. It was decided — her professional life would be interwoven with art and wine. She then embarked on a double university course, obtaining a Master's degree in Art History and a postgraduate diploma (DESS) in Vine and Wine Law, before qualifying as an auctioneer in 2010. During her apprenticeship, Virginie gained experience in wine auctions with Michael Ganne and Julie Carpentier. Inspired by the auction houses she first worked for, Virginie was to become an advisor on the Arts Market, advising clients for ten years, teaching art history and being involved in the creation of an exceptional coffee roastery called L'Alchimiste, before returning to her initial project: directing auction sales. In 2023, Virginie reunited with Michael Ganne and Julie Carpentier and joined the Baghera/wines team to develop the auction house in France, operating from Bordeaux.

What we do ...

“Auctions”

“Events”

“Club”

“Boutique”

“Cellar”

With numerous historical sales including to date the world's most important wine auction ever, Baghera/wines has become the #1 wine auctioneer, ahead of a number of historical houses. Transforming wine auctions by putting the know-how and the human being at the heart and restauring the prestige of wine auction was Michael Canne and Julie Carpentier's aspiration when founding their Geneva-based auction house.

In addition to the organisation of auctions and exceptional tasting, the experienced team working with Baghera/wines' experts advises international collectors passionate about wine through its private club and boutique dedicated to fine wines, incorporated within the Beau-Rivage hotel, Geneva.

Baghera/wines organises three types of auction: Live room auctions, “Kipling” auctions and “Wine o'clocks”. On average twice a year, a live room auction is held on the Beau-Rivage Hotel premises, each a unique event telling the story of a heritage – be it that of an illustrious domain, a rare collection or a legendary vintner. A richly illustrated catalogue is published for the occasion to perfectly compliment and enhance the bottles offered for sale.

“Kipling” auctions are these quarterly online sales, live-streamed from Club 1865 by Baghera/wines, treasure-trove to veritable haute couture collections. A dynamic alternative to physical live room auctions to which Baghera/wines continues to apply the principles that are the foundations of its physical sales: irreproachable provenance, quality of expertise and exceptional lots.

“Wine o'clocks” are regular and fast online auctions that take place every second Tuesday of the month. They run on the principle of dial sales in which the price of lots drops in a limited time. This is an opportunity for Internet users all over the world to acquire great wines, in seconds, at the right price and with a single click.

Baghera/wines designs and organises several prestigious events throughout the year to celebrate the greatest wines. These events are usually held in Geneva or sometimes further afield, in Burgundy or elsewhere...

“Wine & Music” evenings, thematic tastings in small groups to broaden one's knowledge of a domain, a vintage, an appellation (vertical, horizontal,...), Baghera/wines style Paulées (traditional Burgundy meals) and delightful dinners presented in collaboration with Michelin-starred restaurants such as Maison Troisgros, are just some of the festive occasions that we have the pleasure to offer you.

For these unique occasions, we put all our experience at your service in selecting with care great wines of old, rare and sought-after vintages. Every moment is crafted to make your experience special, your evening warm and friendly.

In the heart of Geneva's most beautiful neighbourhood, a new club has been established on the ground floor of the historic Beau-Rivage Hotel. A private, high-class setting with a mellow and timeless atmosphere harbouring the greatest wines in the world. Reserved for a limited number of members, this club-lounge is dedicated to culinary and œnological pleasures in a warm and exclusive environment that combines discretion, rarity and privilege.

The Club is an opportunity for lovers of fine wines to meet and to share their impressions, perhaps to exchange bottles and to savour wine in a relaxed atmosphere, a home from home.

Tailor-made themed events are organized throughout the year for members who will also appreciate the Michelin-starred cuisine of Le Chat Botté restaurant and secure personal storage for their own personal collection.

Building on its success, the Club will be duplicated in Burgundy, in Nuits-Saint-Georges precisely, and will open its doors in November 2023.

In the Summer 2020, the brand new Baghera/wines Boutique opened its doors in the heart of the Hotel Beau-Rivage in Geneva. Much more than a “boutique” in the commercial sense of the term, the venue invites wine lovers to discover not only exceptional vintages, but also more accessible and quite remarkable wines, a library made up of ancient œnological books and treaties accessible to members of the Club only.

Located at number 2 rue Adhémar-Fabri, in Geneva and close to the prestigious hotel, Beau-Rivage Genève, with which it maintains close ties, the Boutique offers a unique approach. The client is invited to journey to the heart of the terroirs, to share the most secret stories of the most renowned winegrowers worldwide, will be taken by the hand to live a human and sensory experience and reconnect with the land and its noblest products.

This is how Michael Canne and Julie Carpentier, the founders of Baghera/wines, first imagined this venue – a sojourn of pleasure that will allow them to keep in close contact with all of their customers throughout the year. Open 10am to 7pm, Tuesday to *Saturday (*6pm).

Since the autumn of 2019, Baghera/wines has been working with restaurateurs in Geneva, to sublimate the finest Swiss gastronomic talent.

The Cellar project offers to promising young chefs a fine wine list chosen with care by the experts at Baghera/wines, which complements the restaurant's original wine menu, while remaining consistent with the establishment's cuisine.

A genuine wine cellar on consignment, available to our partner restaurants in Geneva, Cellar offers wine enthusiasts the opportunity to taste rare vintages, sought-after appellations and bottles which are impossible to find on the market, and all this at selling prices in line with the market.

FOREWORD

Part 1

A beautiful day in Bordeaux

(Lots 1 to 410)

On a beautiful day in June 2005, under the sweltering heat of Bordeaux, I met our seller for the first time. Our shared passion for the great Bordeaux wines led to a lengthy discussion about his wine cellar and the importance of proper storage. Even at that time, I was already deeply impressed by the quantity and variety of his collection, and I was even more amazed a few years later when we went to his cellar to collect the wines.

Since 2005, I have had visiting this magnificent cellar several times, which he specifically designed to house all of his treasures, acquired personally from Bordeaux châteaux and wine merchants. Such rare bottles are not obtained without building a special relationship with the châteaux. We shared some wonderful times together, eating, drinking, and making delightful discoveries followed by leisurely walks through the scenic countryside. What more could one ask for than these moments of shared connection, with our feet firmly planted on the earth while our spirits roamed free?

It was during these conversations that I realized how meticulous this man was with his wines. The cellar was purpose-built over 40 years ago with special insulation designed to maintain humidity between 70 and 80%, and of course, a constant temperature of 11°C, with no room for error. The wines were kept under optimal storage conditions in this perfect cellar in southwestern France until they were transported to Geneva. Having tasted a few bottles from this cellar, I can assure you that the wines have retained a youthfulness that would make Dorian Gray envious!

But time passes and waits for no one, much like these bottles. Of course, some have disappeared from the cellar since 2005, shared with family or friends, but there is still an abundance of rare gems with perfectly mature vintages, ready to be enjoyed for many years to come. I could provide a list, but it would only replicate this catalogue.

One would like to see this incredible Bordeaux collection remain together, passing into the hands of another collector. One thing is certain, though: you won't have the good fortune to find so many magnificent bottles in such excellent condition anytime soon.

A beautiful trip in Burgundy

(Lots 411 to 523)

The Burgundy section of this catalog opens with a splendid selection directly sourced from the cellars of one of the greatest Burgundy white wine domains - Pierre Yves Colin Morey. All wine buffs have encountered a bottle that stirs a special emotion within them. The wines from this domain evoke an emotion that, in my opinion, can be summed up in a few words: good balance, great depth and perfect structure, offering an amazing journey with every glass. Thanks to their outstanding provenance, these wines epitomize the excellence of Burgundy whites. (Lots 411 to 443)

Continuing on from this impressive beginning, the subsequent lots are from the cellar of a dear friend who has lovingly collected fine wines for many years. I have spent many delightful evenings in his meticulously controlled cellar in Burgundy, tasting and discussing wines. All the bottles are impeccably preserved, having been collected directly from the producers, never leaving their native Burgundy until finding their way into the secure vaults of the Geneva Free Port, where they are stored under optimal conditions. Anyone who loves Burgundy wines will be keen to own one of these bottles. We are thrilled to present them for your discovery. (Lots 444 to 499)

Concluding this catalog of friendship and generosity are two private collections from a domain and a winemaker who I truly appreciate for his discretion, philosophy, and, naturally, the exceptional quality of his wines. The small quantities produced by the domain make them a rare find on the market, and even more so when you discover the more mature vintages where the full complexity of the wine is revealed. (Lots 500 to 523)

We sincerely hope that reading this catalog brings you as much pleasure as we experienced in preparing it. Above all, we encourage you to have your corkscrew at the ready, for each of these magnificent and legendary bottles eagerly awaits a new cellar, promising to make your taste buds sing... So Good luck with your bids!

inspection criteria

DESCRIPTION

Baghera/wines indicates conditions of the lots according to four criteria: capsules, corks, labels and levels.

Even with the best of care, labels may be stained or damaged because wines are stored in damp conditions. Such storage conditions are beneficial to the preservation of the wines. It is our duty to catalogue and report on wines as accurately as possible at the time of going to press. High resolution photographs are available upon request. The actual condition of the wine within the bottle is not necessarily linked to its outward appearance. You are strongly advised to examine any lot you are interested in before the sale to form your own opinion (or have it examined on your behalf).

CORKS AND ULLAGES IN REGARDS TO WINE

Ullage refers to the space between the base of the capsule and the wine itself. Acceptable ullage levels tend to increase with age.

In this catalogue, when stated "excellent level" or "excellent level for the age", please read that the levels are:

For Bordeaux wines

- under 20 years old — base of neck or better
- between 21 and 30 years old — very top-shoulder or better
- over 31 years old — top-shoulder or better

For Burgundy wines

- under 20 years old — less than 2,5cms
- between 21 and 30 years old — 3cms to 4cms
- over 31 years old — 4cms to 5cms

It should be noted that ullages may change between publication of the catalogue and the sale. This may be caused by the ageing of the cork or by a change in the temperature of the storage conditions or the shipment of the wine. We will only accept responsibility for descriptions of conditions at the time of print of this catalogue and cannot accept responsibility for any loss resulting from failure of corks either before or after this point.

PARCELS

Same wines (producers, appellation, vintage, etc.) may be regarded as part of a parcel. The successful bidder on a lot in a parcel has the possibility to purchase each of the remaining unsold lots in this parcel at the same price, at the time of the bidding. Please note that, in this catalogue, a parcel notice is indicated by the numbers of its constitutive lots in the heading.

CAUTIONARY NOTES

– Descriptions and estimates in this catalogue may be amended at our own discretion. Information is given orally or in writing, before or during the sale.

– Note that some producers tend to over-fill their bottles and a small quantity of wine may be trapped between the capsule and the cork and seep. This should not be confused with ullage (ullage is a natural occurrence in older wines).

conditions of business

These Conditions of Business govern the contractual relations between Baghera/wines Auction & Trading SA (“Baghera/wines”), the seller whose details are indicated in the Sales Commission document (“Seller”), any participant in the auction or traded or over-the-counter, as well as any bidder and the highest bidder, excluding contractual relations between Baghera/wines and the Seller. In case of conflict between these conditions of purchase and the terms and Conditions of Business, the general terms and Conditions of Business shall prevail. These purchase conditions can be modified at any time, in writing or orally during the sale. By participating in any capacity whatsoever in an auction or a private sale organized at Baghera/wines’ discretion, you agree to be bound by these conditions. You should therefore read them carefully before doing so.

1. BUYER

The last bidder at the stroke of the gavel (the “Buyer”) wins the bid on the lot of items (the “lot”). In case of dispute between two or more bidders, the lot will immediately be relisted.

2. AUCTION PROCEDURE

The bailiff accepts bids from those present at the sale, phone bidders, online bidders as well as absentee bidders. The stroke of the gavel indicates the final bid awarding the lot to the Purchaser. The bailiff speaks out and records the name or number of the Buyer.

3. TRANSFER OF RISK AND PROPERTY

Once awarded to the Buyer, the risks and ownership of the lot(s) pass to the Buyer.

4. ABSENTEE BIDDING

Baghera/wines can place bids on customers’ instruction, if you are unable to attend the auction in person, Baghera/wines and its employees or agents cannot be held responsible for failure in the transmission of these instructions during the auction. In the case where two identical bidding instructions match the highest bidding, the lot will be awarded to the first bidder. Baghera/wines reserves the right in its sole discretion, to refuse bids from a buyer’s instructions in case the information and documents submitted as proof of identity, i.e. the identity of the beneficial owner, should prove to be false, incomplete, ambiguous or inadequate.

5. TERMS OF AUCTION

The bailiff has the right at its absolute discretion to refuse any bid, to advance the bidding as it may decide, to withdraw or divide any Lot, to combine any two or more Lots. Any bid must be at least 10% higher than the previous bid. The bailiff can, however, change this percentage during the auction. The Seller as well as any person instructed by the former cannot bid on their own lots.

6. ESTIMATE

The estimate of each lot is based on prices reached during previous auctions for similar lots. It is subject to change and does not constitute any guarantee or indication of the actual final sale price. The estimate does not include costs such as the Buyer’s premium and additional costs (refer to section 8. below).

7. RESERVE PRICE

The reserve price is the confidential minimum price at which the Seller agrees to sell the Lot. If the reserve price is not reached, Baghera/wines may reject the last bid and set a new starting price equal to or above the reserve price. In case no bid matches or is above the reserve price, Baghera/wines shall withdraw the lot without adjudging it to anyone. Baghera/wines, however, reserves the right to organise a private sell after the auction, in which case the price shall not be lower than the reserve price, subject to agreement by the Seller for a price below the reserve price.

8. BUYER’S PREMIUM AND ADDITIONAL COSTS

The buyer’s premium is 22% plus 7,7% Value added tax (VAT) on the hammer price and buyer’s premium. The total amount of the hammer price of each of lot purchased, plus the buyer’s premium, plus VAT is the final price to acquire the lot(s). Please note that other taxes may arise after collection of the goods. This tax (VAT) is refunded to any buyer domiciled outside Switzerland if, but only if, Baghera/wines receives from such buyer an export declaration in respect of a purchased lot which has been stamped by Swiss customs. All buyers should note that local sales taxes or use taxes may become payable upon import of items following purchase. Buyers should obtain their own advice in this regard.

9. EXCHANGE RATES

In some auctions, in order to ensure proper information for the Buyer, a currency converter is made available. The data displayed are provided for information only and Baghera/wines assumes no responsibility in this regard.

10. PRE-AUCTION VIEWING

Prospective buyers are encouraged to inspect the property at the pre-sale viewing, which can be attended at no charge by appointment only (please contact office@bagherawines.com). Bidders accept responsibility for carrying out inspections and investigations, during previewing, to satisfy themselves as to the lots in which they may be interested.

Baghera/wines may also provide condition reports. The absence of reference to the condition of a lot in the catalogue description does not imply that the lot is free from faults or imperfections.

11. NO WARRANTY

Baghera/wines only acts as agent to the Seller. The sale is passed directly between the Seller and the Buyer. Baghera/wines shall not be responsible for any defects in the lots nor do we guarantee the accuracy of the information concerning the producer, origin, date, age, authenticity, provenance, weight or condition of any Lot. None of Baghera/wines agents have authority to give any guarantees in this respect. All statements made in catalogues, advertisements or brochures concerning Baghera/wines sales only express opinions and are no guarantee from Baghera/wines or the Seller. All persons concerned are expected to inquire before the auction, about the description and condition and of the lots and of possible defects or possible damage or repairs which have been, or need to be, carried out.

12. BIDDERS REGISTRATION

Prospective buyers who would bid for the first time with Baghera/wines are asked to provide the following documents, at least 48 hours in advance, in order to give Baghera/wines enough time to process and approve the registration for the auction:

- Individuals: government-issued photo identification (such as a driving licence, national identity card, or passport) and, if not shown on the ID document, proof of current address, for example a utility bill/bank statement.
- Corporate clients: a recent copy (under 3 months old) of the company register.
- For other business structures such as trusts, offshore companies or partnerships, please contact Baghera/wines’ Accounting Department (sales@bagherawines.com) for advice on the information you should supply.
- A financial reference in the form of a recent bank statement or a reference from your bank.
- Persons registering to bid on behalf of someone who has not previously bid or consigned with Baghera/wines should bring identification documents not only for themselves but also for the party on whose behalf they are bidding, together with a signed letter of authorisation from that party.

Please note, Baghera/wines is entitled to request a deposit in CHF in order to ensure the bidders’ final registration. If the bidder is unsuccessful and does not owe Baghera/wines any debt, the deposit will be refunded (i.e. the received CHF amount) in full, 7 days after the sale. Baghera/wines is entitled to change the deposit pre-registration procedures and requirements at their own discretion without prior notice.

13. BIDDER RESPONSIBILITY

Bidding at Auction

Bids may be executed in person by paddle during the auction, in writing prior to the sale by telephone or by live bidding.

Bidding in Person

To bid in person, you will need to register for and collect a numbered paddle before the auction begins. Proof of identity will be required. New clients are encouraged to register at least 48 hours in advance of a sale to allow sufficient time for us to process your information. All lots sold will be invoiced to the name and address to which the paddle has been registered and invoices cannot be transferred to other names and addresses. Please do not mislay your paddle; in the event of loss, inform the Sales Clerk immediately. At the end of the sale, please return your paddle to the registration desk.

Bidding by Telephone

If you cannot attend the auction, you may bid live on the telephone with one of our multilingual staff members. This service must be arranged at least 72 hours in advance of the sale, especially if you wish to bid in a language other than English. We also recommend that you leave an emergency bid which we can execute on your behalf just in case we are unable to reach you by telephone. Please note that telephone bids may be recorded (by bidding on the telephone, you consent to the recording of your conversation). We suggest that you leave a maximum bid, excluding the buyer’s premium and VAT, which we can execute on your behalf in the event we are unable to reach you by telephone.

Online Live Bidding – Bliw

If you cannot attend the auction in person, you may bid online on our online live bidding platform, available on our website at www.bagherawines.com. You must pre-register at least 36 hours before the start of the auction in order to be approved by our bid department. Please note that corporate firewalls may cause difficulties for online bidders. Baghera/wines’ Bliw platform is available on mobile devices as well as computers.

Absentee Bids

If you are unable to attend an auction in person, you may give Baghera/wines instructions to bid on your behalf. Our member of staff will then try to purchase the lot(s) of your choice for the lower price possible. Please note this service is free, totally confidential and offered as a convenience to clients who are unable to attend the sale. In the event of identical bids, the earliest received will take precedence. Although our representative will make every effort, Baghera/wines will not be responsible for error or failure to execute bids.

Bidding Increments

Bidding generally opens with the low estimate and advances in increments of up to 10% subject to the auctioneer’s discretion. The auctioneer retains the right to call bids at his own discretion – bids steps are shown on the Guide for Absentee Bidders on page 332.

Currency and Currency Converter

The sale is conducted in Swiss francs. Any other amounts shown in this catalogue and on the currency converter are for guidance only and are not legally binding. Baghera/wines declines all responsibility for any mistakes on the currency converter.

When bidding, the person assumes personal accountability to pay the price and any other applicable taxes or charges, unless it has been explicitly agreed in writing with Baghera/wines, prior to the auction, that the bidder only acts as an agent on behalf and in the name of an third party, acknowledged and accepted by Baghera/wines, and that the said party shall be solely responsible for payment of the Price.

The fall of the auctioneer’s hammer indicates the final bid. The auctioneer will call out and record the name or “paddle” number of the buyer. If your written bid is successful, you will be notified the day following the sale by email. Please note, bidding may be re-opened at the auctioneer’s discretion. The final bid is provisional until the end of the auction. The auctioneer is entitled to re-open the bidding at his discretion at any time before the end of the auction. At the end of the auction, the final bid becomes irrevocable.

14. SALE RESULTS

Results for the sale are available upon request. Baghera/wines cannot accept liability for any errors or omissions, howsoever caused. Sellers should await their settlement statement as confirmation of any sold proceeds.

15. PAYMENT OPTIONS AND DEADLINES

The price is payable in Swiss francs in the seven days following the sale. On the eighth day after the sale, interest at the rate of 1% per month will be added to the amount due. Payment can also be made in foreign currencies with legal-tender status if that amount can be converted into Swiss francs at the value date of payment. To avoid any delay in releasing goods, prospective buyers should supply bank references before the auction. Please include your name and invoice number with your instructions to the bank. Please note that we reserve the right to decline payments received from anyone other than the buyer of record and that clearance of such payments will be required. All fees regarding bank transfers are at the buyer's charge.

Payment can be made in Swiss francs at the sale in cash, by credit card or charge card, or by bank transfer to: Beneficiary: Baghera Wines Auction&Trading SA, Geneva

Crédit Suisse, AG, CH-1211 Genève 70

IBAN: CH54 0483 5157 5226 21000 — Swift/BIC: CRESCHZ80A

Please note that transactions should preferably be made by bank transfer. If you wish to pay in cash, please seek Baghera/wines' financial services for advice prior to making payment arrangements and contact our Accounting Department (sales@bagherawines.com) in order to comply with Swiss government regulations.

Baghera/wines will accept all major credit cards, American Express, Visa and MasterCard to pay for invoices. (A processing fee will apply). The successful bidder during the auction is solely responsible for payment to Baghera/wines. We will not accept payments for purchased lots from any party other than the buyer. Goods can only be collected when payment has been cleared.

16. NON-PAYMENT

In case of non payment by the Buyer within seven days of the sale, Baghera/wines shall try their best to carry out the Seller's instructions as to the next steps and help them, when possible, to reach the price or if not, cancel the sale. All damages are expressly reserved. Notwithstanding the above, Baghera/wines expressly reserves the right at its discretion and expense of the Seller to accept special conditions of payment of the price, to take adequate measures for storage and/or lot insurance, to start or pursue any legal proceedings instituted by or against the Buyer on the terms and conditions that Baghera/wines considers appropriate, to take all necessary measures to recover the amounts owed by Buyer and, if possible, to return the lot to the Seller.

In case of non-payment or partial payment, Baghera/wines is entitled to terminate the contract with immediate effect, provided that it has served a warning to the Buyer to pay the requested amount within 10 days. In case of termination of the contract, the Buyer accepts to pay an indemnity corresponding to 20% of lot to Baghera/wines. The Buyer understands and expressly accepts that any amount already paid by the Buyer will be retained by Baghera/wines up to the amount of the indemnity.

17. PARTIAL PAYMENT

Any partial payment by the Buyer to Baghera/wines will be considered payment through direct deposit. In case of failure of the Buyer to pay the entire price of this deposit will be automatically collected and lot will be relisted by public auction or at a private auction or sale by private treaty at the discretion of Baghera/wines.

18. COLLECTION, SHIPPING, IMPORTATION AND STORAGE

Please refer to page 334 in this catalogue for detailed information regarding collection, shipping, importation and storage facilities. Please note that the Geneva FreePort is open from Monday to Friday from 8 am to 11 am and from 1 pm to 4 pm. Please note, that collection notice should be given at least 48 h prior collection.

All the lots are stored at:

Geneva FreePort and are in bond (please refer to individual the lot description in the catalogue or e-catalogue).

All lot(s) can be collected when Baghera/wines' full payment confirmation has been delivered to the buyer. Any property for which shipping arrangements or collection have not been made prior to this date will be assessed a monthly storage of CHF 50/pallet/month (up to a maximum of 300 × 75cl) and insurance charge of 0,15% per month of the value.

For all buyers, a transit document will be needed to ship the wines. Destination VAT, excise duty, clearance charges are at the buyer's charge and cannot be cancelled or refunded by Baghera/wines. For buyers inside Switzerland, excise duty and clearance charges will be charged. VAT is already included in Baghera/wines' invoice.

Be informed that express shipping companies may refuse to issue transit documents, we strongly recommend using a professional wine carrier.

Buyers are reminded that Baghera/wines accepts liability for loss or damage to uncollected lots until 30th November 2023.

19. RIGHT OF RETENTION AND DELIVERY

In order to avoid any errors in the auction process, to ensure the payment of invoices and to proceed to – where necessary and in accordance with legal and regulatory requirements – the required checks on the Buyer as well as the identity of the beneficial owner, No lot may be removed during the sale.

Baghera/wines is authorized to retain the lots until all amounts due to Baghera/wines have been paid in full or until the Buyer has performed all other obligations that Baghera/wines, at his discretion, considers due, including anti money laundering and counter financing of terrorism compliance.

In case a buyer does not meet the aforementioned checks to the satisfaction of Baghera/wines, the company will be entitled to cancel the sale and take any other action required or permitted by law. Shipping service will take place after reception of payment.

20. NON-COLLECTION OR NON-DELIVERY

In case the Buyer, having fulfilled all his obligations under these conditions of purchase, does not withdraw or fails to take delivery of the Lot, Baghera/wines will be entitled to, upon notification to the Buyer, relist the lot by way of auction or private sale, in their sole discretion, and charge the Buyer the entire storage costs, insurance and all other costs that may occur. Baghera/wines will have a right of retention on the lots until payment of all of these costs.

21. FALSE INFORMATION

If the information or documents provided by the Buyer on his identity or the identity of the beneficial owner prove to be false, incomplete, ambiguous or insufficient, Baghera/wines may, in their sole discretion, cancel the sale and pursue the fraudster. The Buyer will be responsible for all costs incurred.

22. BAGHERA/WINES'S AUTHENTICITY GUARANTEE

If Baghera/wines sells any wine which the Buyer subsequently shows to Baghera/wines' reasonable satisfaction to be a "counterfeit", subject to the terms below Baghera/wines will cancel the sale and refund to the Buyer the total amount paid by the Buyer (in the original currency). Definition: "counterfeit" means a wine that in Baghera/wines' reasonable opinion is an imitation created to deceive as to producer and vintage, where the correct description of the producer and vintage is not reflected by the description in the catalogue.

The Guarantee is provided for a period of fourteen (14) days from the date of the auction, for the sole benefit of the original Buyer and may not be transferred to any third party.

In order to claim under this Guarantee, the Buyer must:

(i) notify within 14 days Baghera/wines in writing of the reasons for believing the wine to be counterfeit. The buyer must specify the lot number and date of the sale at which it was purchased; and

(ii) return the lot to Baghera/wines in the same condition as at the date of sale to the Buyer and be able to transfer property title to the lot, free from any third party claims arising after the date of the sale.

Baghera/wines has discretion to renounce to any of the above elements. Baghera/wines may require the Buyer to obtain at the Buyer's cost the reports of two recognised and independent experts in the field, reciprocally acceptable to Baghera/wines and the Buyer.

Baghera/wines shall not be bound by any reports produced by the Buyer, and reserves the right to seek additional expert advice at its own expense.

On the assumption that Baghera/wines decides to cancel the sale under this Guarantee, the reasonable costs of two mutually approved independent expert reports may be refunded to the Buyer.

23. LIABILITY

Any participant in the sale, in whatever capacity, namely as bidder, visitor or third party is responsible for any damage, particularly to the lots exposed.

24. DATA PROTECTION

As required by law, or in connection with the supply of auction and related services Baghera/wines may ask clients to provide personal data. Baghera/wines may take and retain a copy of government-issued identification such as a passport or driving license. We will use your personal data (i) to provide auction and related services; (ii) to enforce these Conditions of Business; (iii) to carry out identity and credit checks; (iv) to implement and improve the management and operations of our business and (v) for other purposes set out in our Privacy Policy published on our website at bagherawines.com and available on request by emailing office@bagherawines.com.

Sometimes, Baghera/wines may also disclose this information to carefully selected third parties for their own marketing purposes. If you do not wish your details to be used for this purpose, please email office@bagherawines.com.

If the client provides Baghera/wines with information that is defined by European data protection laws as "sensitive", the client agrees that it may be used for the purposes set out above. In the course of these disclosures, personal data collected in the European Economic Area may be disclosed to countries outside the European Economic Area. Although such countries may not have legislation that protects a client's personal information, Baghera/wines shall take reasonable steps to keep such information secure and in accordance with European data protection principles. By agreeing to these Conditions of Business, the client is agreeing to such disclosure.

Please read our Privacy Policy on www.bagherawines.com for full information about personal information and data protection.

Baghera/wines premises may be subject to video surveillance and recording. Telephone calls for telephone bidding purposes may also be recorded. We may process that information in accordance with our Privacy Policy.

25. MISCELLANEOUS

(a) Taxes. If any taxes or rates are applicable to any amount paid by the Buyer, the latter is solely responsible for their payment at the rate and on the date required by the competent administration.

(b) Severability provisions. If any provision of this agreement should be judged by a court to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, this provision may be waived and the rest of the Agreement will continue to be valid and enforceable.

(c) Personal information. Without your express prior refusal, we will be allowed to keep your personal information and may use it to inform you of our upcoming sales, services and events.

(d) Prohibition of Assignment. The Buyer may not assign any benefit and/or obligation under this agreement with Baghera/wines and/or the Seller without our prior written permission.

(e) Applicable law and jurisdiction. All contractual relations between the Purchaser, the Seller and Baghera/wines are subject exclusively to Swiss domestic law, to the exclusion of the rules on the conflict of laws (LDIP). Any dispute in connection with the contractual relationship shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in accordance with the Swiss Rules of International Arbitration of the Swiss Chambers' Arbitration Institution in force on the date on which the Notice of Arbitration was submitted in accordance with these Rules. The number of arbitrators shall be one. The seat of arbitration shall be Geneva. The arbitration will be conducted in French, subject to a written agreement for the use of another language.

support live video streaming. If not, you will still be able to bid live (without the video) as the current bid and next increment will be visible on the screen.

You will need to register at least 48h prior the sale on www.bagherawines.com to ensure registration is complete prior to the sale and confirmed. You will be able to enter the sale and place your bids at your convenience. Please note that credit controls apply on these bids (please refer to page 329).

ABSENTEE BIDS

If you are unable to attend an auction in person, you may give Baghera/wines instructions to bid on your behalf. Our staff members will then try to purchase the lot(s) of your choice for the lower price possible. Please note this service is free, totally confidential and offered as a convenience to clients who are unable to attend the sale. Although our representative will make every effort, Baghera/wines will not be responsible for error or failure to execute bids.

HOW TO... PLACE ABSENTEE BIDS?

In order to place absentee bids, please connect to our website and use the online catalogue bidding platform.

Your bid form must be placed and sent over to us as soon as possible. In event of identical bids, the earliest received will take precedence. Alternative bids may be indicated by using the word "OR" between lot numbers. As a result, if your bid on early lot is successful, our representative will not continue to bid on other lots on your behalf, or, if your early bids are unsuccessful, we will continue to execute bids for alternative lots until a bid is successful. It is important that your bids are listed in numerical order (as the lot numbers appear in the catalogue).

HOW TO... PLACE TELEPHONE BIDS?

If you cannot attend the auction, you can place bids on the telephone. We also recommend that you leave a covering bid which we can execute on your behalf just in case we are unable to reach you by telephone. As the number of telephone lines are limited please make arrangements for this service at least 48 hours before the sale. Please note that Baghera/wines only offers telephone bids in French, English, Spanish, German and Chinese.

BUYER'S PREMIUM

The maximum bid price that you indicate in your absentee bid form is the hammer price only. If you are successful on a lot, a buyer's premium of 22% will be added to the hammer price for each lot you buy. An additional VAT tax of 7,7% will be levied on the hammer price AND buyer's premium. The buyer's premium will be the amount stated in the "Conditions of Business" printed on pages 328-331 of this catalogue.

SUCCESSFUL BIDS

Successful bidder will be notified and invoiced within a few days of the sale.

collection, shipment and storage

IMPORTATION

All lots featured in this sale are stored in bond in Baghera/wines' cellar at the Geneva FreePorts, Switzerland. Wine buyers from outside Switzerland should be aware of restrictions imposed by various jurisdictions regarding importation of alcoholic beverages. It is the buyer's responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import licence. The denial of any licence cannot justify the cancellation of the sale or any delay in making payment of the total amount due.

COLLECTION

Collection from the Geneva FreePorts will be by appointment only and at least 7 days notice must be given. Property will not be released until payment in full has been received and funds have been cleared. Authority for the release of lots to the Buyer will be a Release Order provided by Baghera/wines. Moreover, it is Baghera/wines' policy to request proof of identity (the Buyer's, or that of the Buyer's authorised representative/shippers, in which case they will require an authorisation letter from the Buyer) on collection of a lot. All Buyers (or shippers) must examine every lot or consignments in the presence of cellar staff at Geneva FreePorts prior to collection.

For any buyers outside Switzerland, a transit document will be needed to ship the wines. Destination VAT, excise duty, clearance charges are at the buyer's charge and cannot be cancelled or refunded by Baghera/wines. For buyers inside Switzerland, excise duty and clearance charges will be charged. VAT is already included in Baghera/wines invoices. Be informed that express shipping companies may refused to issue transit documents, we strongly recommend to use a professional wine carrier. Baghera/wines can assist in retrieving lots from the Geneva FreePorts.

SHIPPING

Shipping will be at Buyer's expense, and must be prepaid of freight collect. Shipping by commercial means, particularly of older wines, can be risky and it is at the buyer's risk. Baghera/wines will not refund any shipment charges under any circumstances. Please contact directly Baghera/wines shipping department for any transport or insurance requests.

Extreme temperatures (too hot or too cold) can damage fine wines. During periods of extreme temperatures, Baghera/wines holds your wine until the weather is suitable for shipping. This means that shipment of your wine can be delayed for several months during the summer. If the Buyer chooses to ship during extreme weather conditions, the Buyer assumes all responsibility for possible weather-related damage that may incur during that wine shipment (i.e. pushed up corks, leakage, etc.) and the Buyer understands that Baghera/wines will not guarantee the condition of any wine transported during periods of extreme heat or extreme cold and will not replace any wine deemed to have incurred temperature related damage in transit.

WINE PACKING

All lots will be delivered in their packaging as described in the catalogue.

If you would prefer an optimum protection of the bottles, we can provide styrofoam (on demand only, we shall provide you with a quote), and the empty original wooden cases will be added to the shipment.

Baghera/wines will take no responsibility for breakage of wines during shipment.

TAXATION

The laws of the final destination of shipment determine taxation. It is the Buyer's responsibility to ensure compliance with applicable tax laws shipments.

STORAGE

Baghera/wines offer complimentary storage at the Geneva FreePorts for 6 weeks after the date of the sale. Any property for which shipping arrangements or collection have not been made prior to this date will be assessed a monthly storage of CHF 50/pallet/month (up to a maximum of 300 × 75cl) and insurance charge of 0,15% per month of the value. (Please refer to Baghera/wines' Conditions of Business, 18. COLLECTION, SHIPPING, IMPORTATION AND STORAGE, on page 330 of this catalogue).

NOTE

In all instances, neither Baghera/wines nor the Geneva FreePorts are responsible for any deterioration, damage, loss or any acts or omission of any shipper, including, without limitation, any packing, shipping, delivery or insurance for purchased lots.
