“I saw a chapel all of gold / hat none did dare to enter in / And many weeping stood without / Weeping mourning worshipping
I saw a serpent rise between / The white pillars of the door / And he forced & forced & forced / Down the golden hinges tore
And along the pavement sweet / Set with pearls and rubies bright / All his slimy length he drew / Till upon the altar white Vomiting his poison out / On the bread & on the wine / So I turnd into a sty / And laid me down among the swine.”

“I Saw a Chapel”
by William Blake

DELIGHTFUL (S)WINE

As followers of the Gregorian calendar, we have just, here in Switzerland, celebrated a new calendar year on the 1st of January, while the Chinese New Year 2019 of the Earth Pig will start on February 5th. This 2019 new cycle is placed under the protection of the Pig, which according to Chinese astrology, announces the end of the 12-year cycle of the zodiac animals. This shiny, bon-vivant, tolerant and generous Chinese sign also refers to some memorable wine vintages of the 20th Century such as 1947, 1959 or 1983.

In a spirit of celebration of the Chinese New Year of the Earth Pig (Boar), I have the pleasure to introduce our January 22nd 2019 online only “wine o’clock” auction, 100% dedicated to the finest wines of Burgundy. The Baghera wines experts have selected some of the best Burgundian names that all seasoned wine-lovers will definitely appreciate: Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, Leroy, Ramonet, Rousseau, Jayer, Liger-Belair, De Vogüé, Roumier, Dugat-Py, Lamarche, amongst others, with some of their finest wines from the 1980s and 1990s mainly.

As an impressive entrée to this auction, Pinot Noir and Chardonnay enthusiasts will be thrilled to browse a selection of wines from the legendary 1978 vintage (La Romanée, Musigny Blanc...) followed by an ensemble of De Vogüé reds from the 1980s, a few gems (bottles and magnum) from Henri Jayer including Cros-Parantoux and Échézeaux and a very rare collection of La Romanée (1978 – 2010). Highlights of this sale also include the stunning Chambertin Clos de Bèze Rousseau 1990, a Leroy Assortment from the 1993 vintage and no less than 4 DRC 1995 Assortment cases. All these names ring out through our passion for wine and I hope that you will find your dream wine to celebrate this New Year.

Our “Delightful (s)wine” wine o’clock will start on Tuesday 22nd of January 2019 at 2pm on the dot (Swiss time!). Be on time – it will go fast and us Swiss don’t mess with time!

A row of wine bottles, each protected by a glass cloche. The bottles are of various colors (green, dark) and have white labels with humorous text. The central bottle's label reads 'AMAZING' and 'TÂCHE'. To its right, another label reads 'SPLENDID' and 'DRINK ME'. The background is softly blurred, showing more bottles and a hint of an outdoor setting.

—1— Pre-register!

In order to be able to take part in the Wine o'clocks, you must pre-register before they take place. After your registration is validated (which takes a maximum of 12 hours), you have your personal login details, which will enable you to get involved with all the Baghera Wine o'clocks. These details will also give you access to your personal client account, so that you know your purchase amounts for each sale you participate in.

—2— Make your choice!

A few days before the date of the sale, the catalogue can be accessed on the website. Browse this online catalogue. For each lot, it shows you a definitive list, detailed descriptions of the wines and high-definition photos, too.

—3— Make your bid!

At this stage, you can enter your bids at a set price if you cannot log in during the sale. These bids will be executed during the sale, on your behalf. In the event where 2 bids were left at the same price, priority will be given to whichever was received first.

—4— Get ready!

On the specific date and time of the Wine o'clock, lots are put up for sale. Each lot is announced with a high price and a low price.

—5—
Tic...

Bids start at the high price, and fall progressively to the low price, in regular decrements. These decrements succeed each other, at the same frequency, and are displayed on your screen.

—6—
Tac...

The countdown displayed at the top of the screen shows you the number of seconds before the next decrement, falling to the lower price. A reminder of the current decrement amount is shown just below.

—7—
Click it!

The first user to click on "Buy" wins the auction. However, written bids placed and recorded by other bidders have precedence over live bids.

—8—
Keep going!

The next lot is then offered under the same principle, until the last lot has been auctioned.

Congrats!

If you have won one or several lots during the sale (live or following absentee bid orders), you receive – once the sale has finished – an email summarising your purchases (information also available in your personal client account).

—10—

Thank you!

Baghera Wines will then contact you for invoicing and delivering your wines. Please note that a buyer's premium of 20% (exc. VAT) will be added to the final bid price for each lot you win during these Wine o'clock sales.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

CONDITIONS OF SALE

These conditions of sale govern the contractual relations between Baghera/wines Auction & Trading SA (“Baghera/wines”), the seller whose details are indicated in the Sales Commission document (“Seller”), any participant in the auction or traded or over-the-counter, as well as any bidder and the highest bidder, excluding contractual relations between Baghera/wines and the Seller.

In case of conflict between these conditions of purchase and the terms and conditions of sale, the general terms and conditions of sale shall prevail. These purchase conditions can be modified at any time, in writing or orally during the sale. By participating in any capacity whatsoever in an auction or a private sale organized at Baghera/wines’ discretion, you agree to be bound by these conditions. You should therefore read them carefully before doing so.

1. BUYER

Baghera/wines organises only online sales called “Wine o’Clock”. These sales are processed automatically.

2. AUCTION PROCEDURE

The first customer to click at any bid step (the “Buyer”) stops the sale of the concerned lot and wins the bid on the lot of items (the “lot”).

3. TRANSFER OF RISK AND PROPERTY

Once awarded to the Buyer, the risks and ownership of the lot(s) pass to the Buyer.

4. ABSENTEE BIDDING

Baghera/wines can place bids on customers’ instruction, if you are unable to attend the auction in person, Baghera/wines and its employees or agents cannot be held responsible for failure in the transmission of these instructions during the auction.

In the case where two identical bidding instructions match the highest bidding, the lot will be awarded to the first bidder. Baghera/wines reserves the right in its sole discretion, to refuse bids from a buyer’s instructions in case the information and documents submitted as proof of identity, i.e. the identity of the beneficial owner, should prove to be false, incomplete, ambiguous or inadequate.

5. TERMS OF AUCTION

The bid steps decrease from high to low estimate of the lot. All lots have 10 bid steps lasting for 3 seconds.. The first bidder to click at any step stops the sale of the concerned lot and wins the lot. There is no possibility to outbid this lot. If no one bids on the lot and once the 10 seconds of the last step are passed the sale of the lot ends. Then the sale of the next lot begins. The lots are sold one at a time according to the catalogue order. The Seller as well as any person instructed by the former cannot bid on their own lots. Only Baghera/wines may bid on behalf of the Seller.

6. ESTIMATE

The estimate of each lot is based on prices reached during previous auctions for similar lots. It is subject to change and does not constitute any guarantee or indication of the actual final sale price. The estimate does not include costs such as the Buyer’s premium and additional costs (refer to section 8. below).

7. RESERVE PRICE

The reserve price is the confidential minimum price at which the Seller agrees to sell the Lot. If the reserve price is not reached, Baghera/wines may reject the last bid and set a new starting price equal to or above the reserve price.

In case no bid matches or is above the reserve price, Baghera/wines shall withdraw the lot without adjudging it to anyone. Baghera/wines, however, reserves the right to organise a private sell after the auction, in which case the price shall not be lower than the reserve price, subject to agreement by the Seller for a price below the reserve price.

8. BUYER’S PREMIUM AND ADDITIONAL COSTS

The buyer’s premium is 20% plus 7,7% Value added tax (VAT) on the hammer price and buyer’s premium. The total amount of the hammer price of each of lot purchased, plus the buyer’s premium, plus VAT is the final price to acquire the lot(s).

Please note that other taxes may arise after collection of the goods. This tax (VAT) is refunded to any buyer domiciled outside Switzerland if, but only if, Baghera/ wines receives from such buyer an export declaration in respect of a purchased lot which has been stamped by Swiss customs.

All buyers should note that local sales taxes or use taxes may become payable upon import of items following purchase. Buyers should obtain their own advice in this regard.

9. EXCHANGE RATES

In some auctions, in order to ensure proper information for the Buyer, a currency converter is made available. The data displayed are provided for information only and Baghera/wines assumes no responsibility in this regard.

10. PRE-AUCTION VIEWING

Prospective buyers are encouraged to inspect the property at the pre-sale viewing, which can be attended at no charge by appointment only (please contact office@bagherawines.com).

Bidders accept responsibility for carrying out inspections and investigations, during previewing, to satisfy themselves as to the lots in which they may be interested.

Baghera/wines may also provide condition reports. The absence of reference to the condition of a lot in the catalogue description does not imply that the lot is free from faults or imperfections.

11. NO WARRANTY

Baghera/wines only acts as agent to the Seller. The sale is passed directly between the Seller and the Buyer. Baghera/wines shall not be responsible for any defects in the lots nor do we guarantee the accuracy of the information concerning the producer, origin, date, age, authenticity, provenance, weight or condition of any Lot. None of Baghera/wines agents have authority to give any guarantees in this respect.
